have been set afire on Wednesday
during an engagement between the Allied fleet and Libyan shore batteries.

Force Ship Ashore

MADRID (CP-Reuters) — The Italian cargo ship Edda, 6,107
tons, was forced to beach itself
at Tenerife, in the Canary Islands, today after being attacked by a British warship.

Expand Munitions

OTTAWA (CP)—Board expansion and revision of the Department of Munitions and Supply is provided for in a measure proposed in the House of Commons
this afternoon by Hon. C. D.
Howe, Minister of Munitions.

Registration Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—The question of national registration "has been,
is and will be receiving constant and careful consideration," Prime Minister Mackenzie King told the House of Commons this afternoon, in answer to a question from Conservative Leader Hanson.

U.S. Ships for Allies

NEW YORK (AP)—Efforts to make it possible for United States ships to transport supplies to the Allies were reported under way
this afternoon.
Under the Neutrality Act,
United States vessels are barred from belligerent waters, but shipping executives were described as being hopeful some means of overcoming the restrictions might be devised.

Nazis Lose Oil

LONDON (CP) — An Air Ministry statement tonight said that during last night oil tanks at Dun-kerque were set on fire, and at Flushing and Ostend other aircraft made low-level attacks on airdromes, "inflicting heavy damage."
Road and railway bridges at Soissons also were "repeatedly attacked." A direct hit on the railway junction at Chateau Thierry was followed by a "huge explosion," and extensive damage was caused at Laon.

Stoyadinovitch Busy

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) —
The sudden liberation of former Premier Milan Stoyadinovitch of Yugoslavia, long known as "Germany's friend," from his enforced residence in a village in the Serbian mountains was learned today from a high authority.
High diplomatic quarters viewed the freeing of the ex-premier as a move to improve Jugo-slav relations with Italy and Germany.

France Hears Queen

LONDON (CP)—Queen Elizabeth, in a broadcast in French to the women of France, tonight said that a "nation defended by such men and loved by such women must sooner or later attain victory."
"I who have always loved France so warmly, I share your suffering today and feel it," Her Majesty said.
She addressed her broadcast
"to the women of France — of heroic and glorious France,
which is defending at this moment not only her own soil but the liberty of the whole world."
(The Queen's address was carried on the CBC network.)

Goes to Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) — Matron
Emma F. Pense of Kingston, Ont., has arrived in England and will be married in chief and Canadian nurses serving overseas,
the department of national defence announced this afternoon.
Miss Moya Macdonald of Halifax has been appointed acting matron at headquarters in Ottawa to succeed Miss Pense.
Miss Macdonald was recently stationed at Work Point Bar-acks hospital, Esquimalt, B.C.

Italian Envoy Leaves

LONDON (CP) — The Italian
ambassador to Great Britain, Giuseppe Bastianini, and his family were among 700 Italians with diplomatic passes who embarked today on a British liner at Glasgow.

New B.E.F. Rushes to Points On French Front

LONDON (CP)—A new British expeditionary force—new in men and material—is in France.

Some days ago three trains
loaded with fresh troops arrived
at a southern port within an hour.
Many more came hourly by truck, bus and car—and as fast as they came they boarded great grey transports which moved slowly out to sea and France.

Hour after hour, day after day,
from a hundred sources, the stream of men and arms gathered power. There were light anti-aircraft units, Scottish engineers and infantrymen from rural England.

One officer who took part in the withdrawal from Dunkerque said "we all took return tickets
when we came out."

NEWLY EQUIPPED

The average age of the new
B.E.F. is about 24. Every man carried new equipment.

"The men are very keen," one anti-aircraft officer said. "I have my full equipment and I am fully equipped. Everything we wanted arrived in time—and it was an awful rush."

Giant cranes swung field guns, pontoons and trucks aboard transports. Overhead wheeled a patrol plane.

"The use of light anti-aircraft guns in mobile warfare is something new," said one officer. "But we have the lessons of Dun-kerque passed on to us and our material is every bit as good as that of the men who went before us so we are hoping to put up a good show."

READY FOR ITALIANS

"We have waited for this a long time," said one young subaltern.
"We are only sorry that we cannot have a cut at both the Germans and Mussolini at the same time. Perhaps the Italians will be kind enough to wait on us."

British spokesmen said the heaviest German attack in the battle in France continues on the west side of Rouen.

Nazi assertions that the whole
French line between the English Channel and Montmedy had broken drew the comment that "we don't believe a word of it because the French were fighting
very well yesterday and it seems improbable that the whole front from the sea to Montmedy should break down at once."

Paris, these sources claimed,
was of no great strategic value.

BRITISH BOMB HITS SCHARNHORST

LONDON (CP)—An Admi-
rality announcement today said:
"Aircraft of the fleet air arm carried out an attack on German naval units in Trondheim Fjord (Norway) early yesterday morning."

"Information has now been received that one hit abate the funnel was obtained with a heavy bomb on the battleship Scharnhorst.
It is also reported that possibly a second hit was registered on the same ship."

The Scharnhorst has figured in the news twice since the invasion of Norway. She was engaged in a running battle by the battle-cruiser Renown early in April and was severely hit. But she escaped in a snowstorm and apparently has been repaired. Last week, according to a German account, she took part in the sinking of the aircraft carrier Glorious.

The Scharnhorst, of 26,000 tons
and 741 feet in length, carries nine 11-inch guns.

U.S. Congressmen May Stay in Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — An argument against Congress adjourning June 22 is the "new and last appeal" which Premier Reynaud of France addressed to the United States for help.

Some lawmakers today were of the opinion the United States should go to greater lengths and offer new proposals for abandonment of the Neutrality Act.

On the other hand, a Senate bloc was forming to fight any attempts to supply direct governmental military aid to the Allies.
Members of this group made clear they would not resist indirect aid along present lines.

Allied Near Eastern Army Ready

Held in readiness for instant action for the past several months, the Allied Near Eastern army's period of waiting has now come to an end as it swings into action against Italian forces. A British Bren gun carrier, a rolling fortress for use as an attack spearhead is shown in action on the desert in Egypt. Behind the gun carrier are Indian troops of the British army.

Ford Inspects Plane

Henry Ford is pictured here as he inspected a Curtiss P-0 pursuit plane which was flown to the Ford plant at Dearborn, Mich., to determine the possibility of turning it out by the mass production method. Ford, asked whether he found the plane more complicated than he had expected, replied "No." Ford recently announced that given a free hand he could turn out 1,000 planes a day.

TANGIER OCCUPIED BY SPANIARDS

MADRID (AP) — Occupation
by Spanish troops of the international zone of Tangier in the name of the Sultan of Morocco was announced by a foreign ministry spokesman today as follows:

"With the object of guaranteeing the neutrality of the zone and city of Tangier, the Spanish government has decided provisionally to take over the services of vigilance, police and security, and forces have entered, this morning with that object. All existing services are guaranteed and will continue functioning normally."

Two divisions of troops and a destroyer effected the occupation of the area opposite Gibraltar, it was reported.

Tangier was internationalized
under a treaty signed before the first Great War and later made permanently neutral by the convention of 1923. Spain reopened the question and in an accord signed in 1928 received police powers in the zone, which has an area of 225 square miles.

It was explained semi-officially that today's action was taken under those police powers after consultation with the interested nations.

Fergus McKean Held

VANCOUVER (CP) — Royal Canadian Mounted Police officials
here announced today that Fergus McKean, Communist candidate in Vancouver East in the last general election, had been arrested under Defence of Canada regulations.

This afternoon the R.C.M.P. stated Robert Kerr, political liaison officer for the Dominion bas-tillon which fought in the Spanish civil war in 1937, also had been taken into custody.

Growing U.S. Aid Goes to Allies

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Roosevelt repeated today that all possible help was being extended to the Allies, and pointed to Hitler's record in response to a report that the German Chancellor had said invasion of the western hemisphere was grotesque.

Mr. Roosevelt was told at a press conference that Hitler had called the possibility of German invasion of the Americas "grotesque" in an interview with a newspaperman.

Asked for comment, the President said he could give none, except to say "that it brings up recollections."

He authorized direct quotation.

He added that his remark could be enlarged on with dates and names, going back over quite a period of years.

The President was asked whether he believed the United States could "extend its material resources to the Allies in sufficient volume and sufficient speed to save them."

He did not reply directly, as setting it would take two hours to answer the inquiry.

He said, also, that he had received no second direct appeal from Premier Paul Reynaud of France for "clouds" of airplanes and further assistance against the German foe.

(Reynaud voiced the request in a radio speech late yesterday.)
If any such request has been forwarded, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, it has not been received.

Urges Britain Train More Fighting Men

LONDON (CP)—The Evening
Standard, published by Lord Beaverbrook, Minister of Aircraft
Production, said today Premier Reynaud's appeal to President Roosevelt for aid "may equally be directed to us."

Noting Britain had sent soldiers, arms and fliers to France, the Standard said:

"The nation's economic life has been galvanized into action. But in one chief department of our preparations there is delay.
Strangely, it is the department concerned with training men to fight. . . . The people of England demand the right to be soldiers
in this battle."

Permit No Delay In Shipbuilding

OTTAWA (CP) — Steps will be taken to ensure the completion on schedule of four mine-sweepers now being built by a company headed by a man defined as an enemy alien, Hon.
C. D. Howe, Minister of Munitions and Supply, told the House of Commons this afternoon in reply to a question from Hon. R. B. Hanson, Conservative leader.

Mr. Howe said he assumed Mr.
Hanson referred to the contract
held by the Dufferin Shipbuilding Company.

According to information received by the department, the work was proceeding on schedule. Mr. Howe did not yet know what interest the president of the company (James Franceschini)
had in the company.

Retiring Paris Army Counter-Attacks

Maginot Line Repulses Nazis

TOURS, France (AP) — The French army of Paris retreated tonight, counter-attacking as it went, while other forces were declared to have thrown back a Nazi frontal attack on the Maginot Line.

The French evening communique said:

"From the sea to the Argonne
the battle continues on the whole front, although at certain points with less violence. The retirements ordered, notably that of the army of Paris, as announced
in this morning's communique,
have been carried out conforming to plans."

"Our troops have counter-attacked several times."

"The enemy this morning delivered a violent attack against our positions west of the Saar, using tanks and airplanes. They were repulsed with heavy losses."

The forenoon communique, announcing the abandonment of Paris, brought tears to Frenchmen here. It was read aloud by a sober-faced editor at the emergency headquarters here of the Havas News Agency.

A few women clerks sobbed,
an elderly French newspaperman appeared with red eyes as he brought in the latest reports.

The Havas offices, which were a beehive of activity only last night, were all but deserted by noon. The Associated Press bureau planned to go to Bordeaux
during the day.

Arms Plants

Rendered Useless

LONDON (CP) — A Reuters
dispatch from Paris today said
big French armaments factories
in the suburbs of Paris were blown up before the Germans entered the French capital.

Paris was almost a deserted city, the dispatch said. The French who remained while most of the population fled stayed in their homes or sat in their shops
with the shutters down.

All buildings and bridges, it said, were left intact.

Capital Moved From Tours

By AXEL DE HOLSTEIN

TOURS, France (CP-Havas) — Exhausted French armies, without reserves of men or material, fell back fighting today against the Nazi tide that threatens to flank the Maginot Line.

Egyptian Sudan also were raided
by the Italians but without damage.

Fuel Tanks Destroyed Near Venice

Allied Naval Guns Shell Italy Coast

TOURS, France (AP) — The
high command announced tonight
that French warships had bomarded industrial establishments and the railway along the Italian coast last night.

Tonight's French communique
also said:

"During the night of June 13-14
a special formation of naval aviation commanded by Capt. Dailleire bombed and set fire to reservoirs of liquid fuels in the region of Venice."

"Another formation dropped traps on Rome."

British Fliers

Score in Libya

CAIRO, Egypt (CP) — The Royal Air Force bombed Italy's Fort Capruza, near the Egyptian border, during flights over Libya yesterday, it was announced today. Extensive damage was reported.

The Red Sea port of Assab, in Italian Eritrea, was raided yesterday. One Italian biplane was reported destroyed there, three planes set afire and buildings,
trucks and other material damaged. All the British raiders returned safely.

Italians yesterday thrice raided Aden. All the Italian planes were easily repulsed.

One tri-motor bomber was shot down at sea and two of the crew rescued and made prisoners. Another raider was badly damaged.

As the Germans marched into abandoned and lifeless Paris, it was disclosed the French government had withdrawn from Tours
to a city farther southwest to escape the approaching tentacles of the vast German encircling movement around the already-captured capital.

Forces Battle

At Maginot Pivot

On the western end of the front, armored units supported
now by large infantry forces,
have begun to overrun French defending forces, a military spokesman said.

On the eastern extremity of the front, he said, "our divisions have until today succeeded in holding intact the pivot of the Maginot Line at Montmedy and in holding the German drive in the Argonne and in eastern Champagne, while on the rest of the Champagne front enemy armies are advancing toward Romilly and St. Dizier."

"If the enemy puts in the line
the fresh divisions he still has in reserve, the unhinging of the position at Montmedy will become inevitable," the spokesman added. "This is why the government has retired farther toward the southwest."

Army Determined To Fight On

"It is important," he went on,
"that international opinion should understand that the French army,
the vanguard army of the democracies, has not renounced, despite the terrific difficulties, its fight to the end."

"But we are less numerous.
The lengthening of the front is forcing us to put all divisions
into the line. Our dispositions have lost their de . . . We have almost no reserves. We lack material."

"This is the full meaning of the appeal addressed to President Roosevelt by Premier Reynaud.
Planes and tanks must be sent to us. It is the duty of all democracies for whom we are fighting.
It is the only way of expressing today the solidarity of the democracies. Then, to use the last words of Reynaud's speech, 'The Day of Resurrection Will Come.'"

The German forces reached the gate of Paris last night. It was officially disclosed. Before them

they found only the unarmed metropolitan police who had remained in the deserted capital to maintain order. All communications between Paris and the rest of France were cut.

The French army which had fought in front of Paris in the hope of stopping the German drive withdrew in two parts, one to the east and one to the west of Paris. They were to join south of the capital. The historic bridges over the Seine in Paris were left undamaged.

Pouring southward, too, were thousands of refugees in all types of vehicles, and workers following truckloads of machinery into new industrial centres, where the war effort will be pushed to the utmost.

Courageous Battle In New Positions

With almost superhuman courage, the French troops continued their battle "in the most complete order," as this morning's communique of the high command phrased it.

The withdrawal from the Paris sector followed Premier Rey-naud's dramatic declaration on the radio that the nation's very existence was at stake and his appeal
for immediate aid from the United States.

Immediately after the Premier's speech the British government
sent a message to the French government pledging the "utmost aid
in her power" and proclaiming the "indissoluble union" of the French and British peoples and empires.

"We renew to the French republic our pledge and resolve to continue at all costs in France, in this island, upon the ocean and in the air wherever it may lead us, using all our resources to the utmost limits and sharing together the burden of repairing
the ravages of war," the British message said.

"We shall never turn from the conflict until France stands safe and erect in all her grandeur, until the wrong and the wronged and the enslaved states and peoples have been liberated and until civilization is free from the nightmare of Nazism."

"That this day will dawn we are more sure than ever. It may dawn sooner than we now have the right to expect."

Submarines Flee From British Guns

MADRID (AP) — Three Italian submarines, one of them visibly damaged, took refuge today in Spanish ports.

The damaged submarine put in
at Ceuta, Spanish Morocco, just after heavy cannonading had been heard from Gibraltar, across the straits.

Earlier, a pursued Italian submarine had sought haven in the port at Algeiras and a third was said to have entered another port.

Italian Ships Lost Total 210,855 Tons

LONDON (CP) — Authoritative circles said today a total of 210,855 tons of Italian shipping has been captured by the Allies or scuttled
by Italian crews since Italy entered the war.

Slightly more than 80,000 tons of this shipping is now in British home waters.

From the beginning of the war,
September 3, until Italy's entry,
eight Italian ships of 37,619 tons
were sunk by German action.

munique announced today:

dria had an air raid alarm at

Children Leave London

LONDON (CP)—The second great contingent of children being removed to the west for greater safety left London early today.

Upwards of 40,000 departed yesterday and today. A total of 120,000 are to be taken from the capital by next Tuesday.

Canada Pledges Full Support

OTTAWA (CP)—Following is the text of a message cabled today by Prime Minister Mackenzie King to Premier Reynaud of France, as read to the Commons this afternoon.

"The Canadian people have heard with deep emotion your brave words as you have spoken from day to day. We have watched with the pride of kinsmen the gallant deeds of your unconquerable soldiers.

"Every word in the tribute paid yesterday in the message by the government of the United Kingdom to the government of the French republic eloquently expressed also the passion and faith in the heart of our people. Canada pledges to France as she has to Britain, her unwavering support to the utmost limit of her power and resources.

"I have read your appeal to the United States. You may be sure that the peoples of North America see with clear eyes the realistic needs of the hour. It is my faith that all the material and economic strength of this continent will be marshaled without delay to help the French republic in the great cause for which she fights. As never before, free men the world over are inspired by the sacrifice and the devotion of France."

Commenting on the situation, the Prime Minister mentioned suggestions that the war might bring a union of the French and British nations. Canada would rejoice at such an outcome, Mr. King said.

Great Speed-up

British Blank Cheque For Supplies From U.S.

LONDON (CP)—The plight of France has caused Great Britain to drop her plans for a long war and speed ahead with all her resources, sources close to the government said today.

This releases a fund of money and credit for purchase in the United States of anything which will convey or fire explosives. The fund originally was allocated for future years.

As a result of the change in policy, these sources said, Britain is giving the United States a blank cheque, in effect, for any kind of useable war material she can provide.

No program aimed at later production will be permitted to stand in the way of the fullest possible effort now, these sources declared.

This is partly the result of the loss of Allied resources because of the widening Nazi hold on France.

From 75 to 80 per cent of France's steel producing plants now are in German hands, these sources said, and the same is true of many factories producing war materials.

But, they added, fortunately for the Allies, most of the French factories producing ammunition are in the south.

SUPPLIES ON HAND

The government is not so much concerned momentarily about the United States' production capacity as about the material there already manufactured, they said. For instance, they explained, the British Expeditionary Force's loss of 1,000 field guns in the withdrawal from Flanders' has left few in this country for the enormous army which must be put into the field.

The situation with regard to rifles is not so acute, they said, but the demands of the local defence volunteers—the home guard against possible German invasion—have taken a large part of the supply.

While she will take all the United States can send, and urges the cutting of red tape, these sources said Britain's own stepped-up production had vastly expanded her purchase of machine tools from the United States and that she would continue to take such tools up to the United States' capacity to send them.

LARGEST ARMY

The policy is to put into the field at once the biggest army possibly—briefly: A maximum of soldiers in a minimum of time—the said, but the Allies must look across the Atlantic for a large part of the equipment.

They emphasized that the need is now, next week and the week after—not next year—although they declared that those charged with supplying Britain's army are not forgetting to look farther ahead also.

Primarily what Britain wants from the United States, these sources said, are the weapons that country manufactured at the close of the last war to replace those she obtained from the Allies.

Allies Ready For Hitler Effort To Split Them

LONDON (CP)—Harold Nicholson, Parliamentary Secretary of the Ministry of Information, predicted tonight Hitler would soon—perhaps during the next few days—"launch his peace offensive."

"Hitler will assure the people of Great Britain he has no desire to subjugate their countries," said Mr. Nicholson, "but that all he desires is their complete disarmament."

"He will say to us that we may keep our Empire, apart from such colonies as he may desire for himself, but that we must abandon our free democratic institutions and accept a government nominated from Berlin, and at the same time surrender our fleet to Germany and Italy."

"The moment he obtains our fleet he would sweep on London and from there would slowly, carefully and thoroughly stamp out the liberties of our countries and reduce our working people to the level of slaves."

The capture of Paris a day before Hitler announced he would, Mr. Nicholson went on, "of course is a great triumph for Hitler and a bitter blow to France and her Allies."

NOT TO BE KILLED

"But although they have captured and may destroy Paris itself, they can not rob Paris of its world position or kill something that has lived for so many centuries it has become immortal." Mr. Nicholson said that the "main mass of the French army is unbroken" and that General Maxime Weygand "once before in his lifetime had plucked over-whelming victory from the jaws of defeat."

Asserting the moment must come when the German-armed divisions would break down from lack of fuel and men would drop from fatigue, he said "it might well be that the moment of exhaustion will come as the French hold them south of Paris; the French will entrench themselves until our own army and equipment can come to their assistance. "It will not be on the dry land of Europe that this war will be won. It will be on the seas and in the air; in distant continents; so soon as unlimited resources of the British Empire and of the Americas can be mobilized to turn the scale."

BIG SECURITIES REPATRIATION

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Ralston today announced $74,900,000 in Dominion of Canada 1940-60 registered stock will be redeemed next October 1, involving a repatriation of this Canadian security now held by British investors.

This is the second repatriation to be carried out by the Dominion since the outbreak of war. The ultimate effect will be that Canadian dollars will be made available to the United Kingdom for purchase of Canadian primary commodities and manufactured products required in the war, the announcement said.

The stock was set to mature October 1, 1960, but is subject to call on October 1, 1940, at the option of the government, on three months' notice. It is outstanding in the amount of $19,300,000, against which there is a sinking fund of $2,463,000, leaving a net amount to be redeemed of $16,837,000 or $74,900,000 at the current rate of exchange.

First large repatriation took place last October when the issue of the Dominion of Canada 1930-50 registered stock was called for redemption last April 17. The operation resulted in approximately $91,000,000 being made available to the United Kingdom.

RUSSIANS SETTLE ON BERING ISLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Deputy Dimond of Alaska told reporters today he had been informed Russia was settling thousands of persons on Elg Diomed Island on the American side of the international line between Siberia and Alaska.

The delegate said his information was that the island, formerly occupied only by Eskimos, was being colonized in a "big way," and added that the Eskimos were becoming alarmed at the influx of Russians.

Dimond said he had been informed by army officials that they intended to send to the Anchorage airbase, recently authorized by Congress, an additional 3,000 troops of various types. The War Department recently announced a battalion of 750 infantrymen had been ordered to Anchorage.

Paris Evacuation Ended at Midnight

LONDON (CP)—The last evacuees from Paris left there last night (3 P.M., P.S.T., Thursday), according to a dispatch of the Exchange Telegraph Company dated the Paris.

At that hour, the dispatch said, orders were given for the gates of the city to be closed by police and civil guards.

The French army, it continued, had begun to fall back on either side of the city, according to pre-arranged plans, to a line well south of Paris.

To avoid the possibility of collision and confusion, orders were given for no more persons to be allowed to leave Paris, the agency said.

German motor machine gun posts were established inside the gates, it declared.

Paris is a city of the dead, the dispatch continued, with every shop closed and shutters up.

On the streets, no one could be seen but police and civil guards. All these had handed in their weapons to become a rigidly civilian body.

Victory Alone Matters

How to Overcome Piles and Rectal Soreness
If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from Modern Pharmacy and Cunningham Drug Store or any druggist, a package of Hemoroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemoroid is highly recommended, is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Reported Missing

LONDON (CP)—Baron Cromwell, 47, who joined up in the last war with a Canadian unit and of late was president of the Canadian Ex-servicemen's Association of Great Britain, has been reported as missing, it was learned here.

Lord Cromwell was farming in Canada in 1914, he once told a British Legion meeting, and joined the British Columbia Horse as a trooper. When it was learned the unit was to be disbanded, all but one of the warrant officers and N.C.O.'s deserted and joined up with the Strathcona Horse. Lord Cromwell later was commissioned in the King's Royal Rifle Corps.

About 600 different languages are spoken on the European continent.

Urge Mobilization Of All Resources

VANCOUVER (CP)—More than 8,000 persons called for immediate mobilization of Canada's man-power, wealth and industry and registration of all citizens as they swore "unswerving loyalty" to the King at a Flying Column Veterans' rally at the Brockton Point Oval in Stanley Park last night.

Close to 3,000 veterans—led by three French veterans of the last Great War—marched through downtown streets to the park, where the other thousands of citizens attended their rally.

The resolutions were endorsed unanimously. Among them were requests that the Department of National Defence make available training facilities for the Flying Column group, in order to assist the home guard; that at least three additional home guard units be formed in Vancouver; cessation of naturalization of aliens for the duration of the war; cancellation of naturalization papers granted to aliens since the outbreak of war, and internment of all enemy aliens.

Capt. C. S. Leary, provincial Minister of Public Works, said that "every citizen of Canada must be prepared to play his or her part; this is a struggle to the end for democracy."

Rev. Glen Stevens of Alberni put a humorous touch to the speeches. "It is not very often we have such a crowd as this in my church," he said. "If we had, it would pay a dividend."

Among the speakers introduced was Major J. Fowler, 91-year-old British war veteran, who said he had seen the Empire's wars since the Crimean. "I'll do everything I can to help in this one," he declared.

Most Rev. A. U. de Pencier, Archbishop of New Westminster, told the people victory was inevitable if they stood by three things: "courage, unselfishness and efficiency."

Labor Committee Planned for War

OTTAWA (CP)—A special advisory committee, composed of representatives of the Dominion government, capital and organized labor, may be set up as a result of a meeting yesterday between cabinet ministers and labor leaders.

The meeting, attended by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Labor Minister Norman McArthur, Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe, Munitions Minister C. D. Howe and the Resources Minister, Hon. T. A. Crerar, discussed ways and means of ensuring that workers in all war industries would be able to give full co-operation to the government.

Labor leaders attending represented all labor organizations of Canada, including the Canadian Administrative Committee on Industrial Organization, the Trades and Labor Congress and the All Canadian Congress of Labor.

No Permits to Depart

LONDON (CP)—A House of Commons questioner who suggested that young Britons were leaving the country saying they would not fight was told by a Labor ministry spokesman that "no exit permits will be issued by the Home Office now."

Coal From Germany

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada imported 465,818 tons of German coal, valued at $1,994,747, during the calendar year, 1939, according to a return tabled by Trade Minister MacKinnon in the House of Commons.

Prayers for France Called in Britain

LONDON (CP)—Heads of the Protestant and Catholic churches in Great Britain today made fervent appeals for prayers for France in its present grave hour.

The Most Rev. Cosmo Gordon Lang, Archbishop of Canterbury, designated next Sunday as a day of prayers for France, and Arthur Cardinal Hinsley asked for three days of prayer starting today.

"This nation is united in whole-hearted sympathy with France in its supreme hour of ordeal," the Archbishop of Canterbury said.

"For heroic France we owe the best that hands and brains and hearts and souls can give," Cardinal Hinsley said. "This hour may be fateful for the world. France is bearing the brunt of the struggle for our liberty."

Unrest Gone, Says Pattullo

MONTREAL (CP)—British Columbia is prepared to sacrifice the last man and the last dollar to successful conclusion of the war, Premier Pattullo said in an address here.

"And I believe the same spirit animates all Canada," he added, speaking over a national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

"Our first duty in Canada is to see to it that whatever seems necessary and essential to be done, shall be done with the utmost speed to the fullest possible extent to stem the onrush of an absolutely ruthless, if resourceful, enemy. Notwithstanding the suddenness of the onslaught and the devastation which has been wrought, there is a deep-rooted feeling in all of us that we are bound to surround and frustrate the efforts of the gangsters who are now perpetrating such unthinkable atrocities."

Mr. Pattullo said one reason for his visit was "the fact that there was great unrest in British Columbia as a consequence of the war."

"Thousands of our people were ready and anxious to fulfill some function, however humble. In the cause that is at this moment all-important to all of us; nor were there enough known as to the activities of the Dominion government in carrying on operations by reason of the war," he said.

"When I reached eastern Canada I found a very similar feeling existing all across the country."

"It has been very gratifying to note a very decided change in public opinion. Our Prime Minister in recent broadcasts has clarified the situation and through the activities of the various departments of his government had indicated to the people that the government of this Dominion is very much alive to the immediate needs of the situation."

Premier Pattullo said that "when this war has been won I do not think the people of Canada will be content to proceed along the old lines." Though it might seem incongruous to discuss after-war problems now, these problems "are already facing us because refugees are coming to our country and some of the men who have gone to the front will be coming back in a condition unfit for almost any service."

10,869 Interned

LONDON (CP)—Sir John Anderson, Home Secretary, told the House of Commons the total of German and Austrian aliens interned was 10,869.

Contracts Total $52,000,000

Many Buildings Started For Air Training Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—Outlining a building plan costing about $52,000,000 in connection with the Commonwealth Air Training Plan, Air Minister C. G. Power asked the House of Commons yesterday to co-operate with him by not making demands that these training schools and associated activities be placed in certain specific localities.

The schools, to be completed by next September, were being placed at the places considered most suitable by technical officers.

"It is not only possible, but highly probable, certain localities will not get the buildings they desire," Mr. Power said. He asked municipal and provincial authorities not to make representations for special consideration.

Such representations "should not and will not" be permitted to change the decisions reached by the government on advice of technical officers.

"In the words of Herbert Morrison in England, 'Let's Get On With It,'" said Mr. Power. Munitions Minister C. D. Howe said the first 30 or 40 contracts in connection with the air training scheme had been awarded by competitive tender on a unit basis.

It was found then that the entire program would require use of all the equipment in the industry. For the balance of contracts, allocation was made on a basis of the equipment available to each contractor, paid on the unit basis established in each locality by tender.

Mr. Howe added that every contractor with suitable equipment was now "booked to capacity" with work for the air training scheme.

LIST OF WORKS

After outlining methods by which sites of landing fields and training schools were selected, Mr. Power said certain sums had been allotted by the Department of National Defence for Air to the Department of Transport for development work.

These sums would be spent at the following western Canada points on airport projects either already started or to start in the next three weeks:

Calgary, $409,547; Moosebank, $330,890; Lethbridge, Alta., $27,760; Fort William, Ont., $90,389; Prince Albert, Sask., $17,600; Edmonton, $48,282; Regina, $230,299; Saskatoon, $358,000; Airdrie, Alta., $89,000; Vancou, Sask., $177,900; Oiler, Sask., $45,400; Penhold, Alta., $24,250; Macleod, Alta., $340,500; Granum, Alta., $207,400; Pearce, Alta., $62,800; Rivers, Man., $265,288; Carberry, Man., $498,000; Petrel, Man., $288,500; Oberon, Man., $76,500; Medicine Hat, Alta., $352,280; Holsom, Alta., $204,900; Whittia, Alta., $50,000; Vancouver, $44,835; Moose Jaw, Sask., $523,000; Butters, Sask., $66,000; Boharm, Sask., $66,000; Swift Current, Sask., $32,535; Brandon, Man., $77,200.

Island Employees Donate Ambulance

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia organizations swelled the number of ambulances pledged or already donated to the Canadian Red Cross Society to more than 28 with the announcement five more would be contributed.

Employees of the Victoria Lumber and Milling Co. Ltd. at Chemainus voted to donate one day's pay per person towards purchase of one ambulance, and J. A. Humbird, president of the company, announced the firm would match the employees' offer and provide funds for a second fully-equipped vehicle.

The British Columbia Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at its concluding session at Revelstoke, set an objective of one ambulance each from three branches of the lodge, while a Vancouver Island firm pledged two fully-equipped vehicles.

The Kiwanis Club of Vancouver presented Red Cross officials with a cheque for $2,100 and two other groups announced they would raise funds for a similar purpose.

More than 700 women golfers of various Vancouver clubs will donate one and the Junior Red Cross is appealing to its 27,000 members throughout the province for purchase of another.

Toronto Destroys Italian Gift

TORONTO (CP)—A large bronze statue presented by the Italian government to the city on the occasion of Toronto's centenary was smashed yesterday by Mayor Ralph Day and sent to a munitions factory to be converted into shells.

The statue, one of Romulus and Remus, legendary founders of Rome, had been in a closet. "I never did like the thing anyway," Mayor Day said. "Anyone who has ever seen the statue will agree that it was no work of art that I destroyed."

Toronto Italian Held

TORONTO (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police, acting on information said to have been obtained in a raid last Monday on the Italian consular office here, yesterday arrested a wealthy Italian-born business man on charges under the Defence of Canada regulations.

Firms with which the man is associated were said to have contracts with both the Dominion and provincial governments at the present time.

OTTAWA OUTLAWS 6 ITALIAN GROUPS

OTTAWA (CP)—Another half-dozen organizations, mostly Italian, have been outlawed in Canada, Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe informed the House of Commons yesterday.

Last week 16 organizations, including various Communist and Fascist groups, were declared illegal.

"With the consent of the House," said Mr. Lapointe, "I should like to lay on the table of the House copy of an order-in-council making illegal certain organizations." He named them as follows:

Italian Fascio Abroad (Fasci Italiani All'Estero).
Ovra—Opera Volontario Repressione Anti-Fascista (national organization for the repression of anti-Fascism).

Dopolavoro (after work organization).
Associazione Combattenti Italiani (Italian War Veterans' Association).

Ogle—Organizzazione Giovanili Dogli Italiani All'Estero (Italian youth organization abroad).

The Italian United Moral Front (a combination of Italian and Italian-Canadian societies in Montreal under the control of the Canadian Fascio).

Paris

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS ALL OVER the world who treasure memories of the Paris of other years are grieving today. Their hearts will go out to those who have been driven onto the highways and byways to escape the immediate impact of war—old men and women and little children knowing not what may lie ahead. Horrible as has been the ordeal through which the gallant fighting men of France have gone in the last month, battling with little respite in the face of almost unbelievable odds, the surrender of their once joyous capital to the German hordes—twice within the memory of many Frenchmen—has come with all its depressing implications at a time when the horizon of the future seems at its blackest.

But the spirit of the sons and daughters of France is not chained; it cannot be defeated or humiliated. It is not a product fabricated by the ambition of one man who knows nothing of the strength of the human impulse or the invulnerability of a moral force; it is a living organism with a shield of the finest steel. It may be scratched and dented; no ersatz weapon will ever reach its vitals. This is the France the world knows, the France which has felt the relentless heel of the invader before, the France now resolved to fight it out with the oppressor. "To the very end." What matters it, then, say her people, if for the moment one of the world's most romantic cities, a historic monument to all the arts and graces, shall again be brought under the hideous spell of an ancient foe? No, the spirit of France will not relent; its armor is intact.

Ralston the Right Man

MR. MACKENZIE KING'S SELECTION of Hon. J. L. Ralston to take charge of Canada's Department of National Defence was cheered in the House of Commons yesterday by members of all parties. Like Hon. Norman Rogers—whose tragic death on Monday robbed the Dominion of one of its ablest sons who had already proved his mettle in the role his colleague now assumes—the new head of the country's fighting branch of the public service is an experienced soldier. He not only has previously held the portfolio he has accepted once more but long ago won his spurs as one of Canada's most efficient administrators. His distinguished service in the Great War won him decorations and mentions in dispatches.

It will be recalled that Colonel Ralston retired from the House of Commons at the dissolution of Parliament in 1935 to resume his legal practice in Montreal. But soon after the outbreak of war last September the Prime Minister prevailed upon him to return to public life—which he did at considerable monetary sacrifice—and enter the cabinet as Minister of Finance. Under his direction the country's financial machinery has been adapted to meet the exigencies of the war, and it is to be noted, moreover, that before he relinquishes that portfolio he will introduce to Parliament a budget which may well be without parallel in Canadian history. As an auxiliary instrument to recruit more dollars and cents, by voluntary means, he recently launched the War Savings Stamps and Certificates policy in order that all our citizens might take a really practical hand in the battle for our dearly won liberties.

The most important factor in this appointment is the fortunate circumstance that Colonel Ralston will be able to combine his own expert military knowledge with an intimate understanding of the new requirements of Canada's war effort in all its detail—the complete readjustment of this country's contribution to the Allied cause in the light of the revelation which Britain and France received when Hitler invaded the Low Countries a trifle more than a month ago. In addition to this, of course, he, like his predecessor, can command the respect and maximum co-operation of Parliament and people.

Not Fooling Mr. Roosevelt

AT HIS PRESS CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON today Mr. Roosevelt was told that Hitler has called the possibility of German invasion of the Americas "grotesque." The President assumed a temporary contemplative mood and admitted that he had no specific comment to make—except to say that "it brings up recollections." He authorized direct quotation of this remark and added that it could be enlarged upon with dates and the names of nations (meaning the states already feeling the heel of the Nazi invader) which he and his interrogators could recall by "going back over quite a period of years." When Mr. Roosevelt was asked whether he believed the United States could "extend its material resources to the Allies in sufficient volume and sufficient speed to save them," he did not reply directly, but said it would take two hours to answer the inquiry. Meanwhile, the President repeated the encouraging statement that the United States is extending all possible help to the Allies.

The neighboring republic already has responded and obviously will continue to respond in magnificent manner to the appeals for help from her sister democracies on the other side of the Atlantic. It is noteworthy, and it will long be remembered, that Mr. Roosevelt's speech at Charlottesville last Monday was made before, not after, France's Premier Reynaud had submitted his account of his country's dire plight to the President. Not that the contents of his address surprised those who have followed Mr. Roosevelt's numerous denunciations of all attempts to substitute totalitarian rule for the liberty of the subject. We who are nearer to the mode of thought and way of life as understood and practiced by our friends in the United States added Monday's reaffirmation of the Rooseveltian conception of democracy to a memorable utterance made on Canadian soil some two years ago—when the President said at Queen's University that his country would not stand idly by if this Dominion were to be invaded by the forces of any non-British empire. But the fact that his Charlottesville speech was inspired by that inherent belief in and determination to defend at all costs the principles on which this hemisphere's peaceful progress depends, perhaps, will not have been entirely lost on the heads of the two brutalized states whose adversaries it was intended to hearten. Our neighbor patently has made up her mind that Nazism and Fascism must be defeated.

Veterans Will Respond

MANY CANADIANS OF OTHER WARS will welcome Hon. C. G. Power's intimation to the House of Commons yesterday that recruiting of Veterans' Home Guard Companies is now proceeding and that recruiting of reserve companies of veterans will commence as soon as organization work has been completed—officers commanding military districts already having been advised in connection with the latter units. One section of the Home Guard will be attached to the Canadian Active Service Force, wear uniforms, draw active service force pay and allowances and serve continuously. The other, the reserve companies, will be attached to the nonpermanent militia, will undergo regular training, be on call for emergency, wear armbands and draw militia pay for the time spent in training or on duty. It is understood that no specific number has been set for these reserve companies of volunteers, the total enlisted probably depending on the number of veterans willing to serve who can meet the requirements, both as to age and physical fitness. Fifty years, incidentally, is the maximum age for men who wish to assist in these units. Of special importance is this decision of the government, of course, because it presents an opportunity to men all over the Dominion who know what war is, know what the Germans are, whose experience and esprit de corps of war veterans as a body can be utilized to excellent purpose as the nation expands its contribution to the cause. Thousands of such Canadians naturally are taking the view that to prepare for the unexpected as well as the obvious is the bounden duty of us all.

Tightening Belt

MEXICO HAS BEEN PERFORMING some interesting laboratory experiments in recent years, and social experimenters on this side of the Rio Grande could do worse than to study them. When the oil interests of the Americans and British in Mexico were expropriated, Mexican oil workers felt festive. They were sure that there would be no limit to easy work, short hours and constantly higher pay, now that they themselves were to own and run the oil industry.

So what happened? Just two years later the oil industry was curtly instructed by the government to begin to pay its accumulated back taxes and begin to meet its obligations. How? By eliminating unnecessary jobs and creating no more new ones, by reducing wages of the more highly-paid workers and eliminating overtime except in emergencies. The lesson? An industry must "pay its way," no matter under what circumstances it is operated, and unless more is produced, more cannot be returned to workers, no matter what the aim.

Don't fret if people impose on you. They don't even try to impose on people they don't like.

An artist is anybody who can translate an emotion or misfortune into a job of work and thus get it out of his system.

DOCTORS' AND NURSES' NAMES ON HUMANITY'S ROLL OF HONOR

Nurses and doctors on their errand of mercy have shared all the dangers of the battlefield with the soldiers and the helpless refugees who have been harried by the Hun. The bombing of the American hospital at Ostend, the machine-gunning of girls, including Americans, who have been engaged in transport work in aid of refugees, and in the bombing of ambulances have set a new record in German frightfulness.

Under the rain of death, doctors and nurses have carried on with a bravery that is unequalled. On wharves where bombs constantly fell upon them and on decks of ships which were raked by machine-gun fire, the doctors have quietly and steadily patched up their patients and the nurses have gone about their work as though they were immune to death or injury.

Even in peace the medical services discharge duties which are frequently attended by great self denial and whose value to humanity is gratefully recognized. In war their dedication to the relief of the suffering calls for a courage and a disregard of self which places them in the van of humanity's heroes.

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT
END OF AN AGE

THERE ARE FEW things upon which reasonable people in all countries can agree nowadays. But one thing is clear. Everyone now knows that this is not just another war. It is a sort of convulsion which, like other things, marks the end of an age.

Even if the war were to end tomorrow, because of some utterly unexpected development, the world could never be the same again. The old order was dying by 1929. The gold standard crisis in Britain in 1931, the New Deal program in the United States from 1933 to 1939, and dozens of other radical changes, were evidences that what was taking place was not just a process of modification as took place in the nineteenth century and before.

One might start with Russia in 1917, Italy in 1922, Britain in 1931, Germany and the United States in 1933 and proceed to every other important country in the world and show that the changes of the past 20 years are fundamental in nature. That is the changes which have already taken place are one-way roads to other compulsory changes of an even more drastic nature.

This war is not only a partial result of some of these changes. It is itself a gigantic step in the process of change.

The war cannot last for ever. Some sort of peace must come to the world before many years are past if only for the reason that the very violence of the struggle will finally blast all participants into inability to continue.

THE REAL ISSUE

THE ONE great question before mankind today, and the one real war issue, is what powers are going to have the ability to shape the new world which is surely going to emerge in the near future. Will it be Hitler, and people like him? Will it be Stalin, and people like him? Will it be Roosevelt, and people who think as he does in America, in Europe and in every corner of the earth?

I am not one who thinks that Hitler is going to blow up tomorrow, or next week or next month. Nor do I think that if Hitler himself were to be blasted from the face of the earth tonight that nihilism, otherwise called Nazism or Fascism, would be any less deadly a thing. Under Goering, the human butcher who personally ordered the massacre of the women and children on the roads of Poland, Flanders and France, there would be no green pastures and still waters for this generation. Under Himmler the devil would no longer wait for night to do his work.

Terrified as is the world at the spectre of nihilism which it now sees in open action in Reims and Paris, it is not scared enough to realize that we have to fight as we have never fought before.

So, too, with Communism. I see no shred of evidence that Marxism has given up any of its world revolutionary ambitions. If they are realized, life for a long time to come is going to be as bleak and barren as it has been for most of the people of Russia in the past 20 years. Communism without kindness, actuated by hate and revenge, would certainly not bring to the world the things I would want my children to leave to their children.

WHAT MOVES MOUNTAINS

RIGHT DOWN at bedrock, the real trouble with our part of the world is religious. The great mass of the people of this western world, still called Christendom, with a mixture of irony and hope, have lost faith in the Christianity of the nineteenth century. For this had falsely taught that God was running the world. A plague came (due to faulty sewers) and many of the pious asked "Why did God permit it?" There was a threat of war, because two rival gangs of concession-hunters wanted different governments to get them some choice plum, and the church recited "give peace in our time, O Lord" and sent the boys on both sides out to die. The most beautiful hymn in my schoolbook, when I was very young, told us that all things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all. But in those days we also sang (at public school, not at church) that "the rich man in his castle, the poor man at his gate, God made them high or lowly and ordered their estate." These last appalling blights on an otherwise beautiful bloom have long since been purged out of the official church hymnbooks. I found them still (by strange paradox) in one United States school text a couple of years ago.

But the blasphemous idea that God was personally responsible for everything in the world, including the "estates" of those in the slums, did not survive the 1914 war in the hearts of the people.

I believe that our world will come through all right, shaken and purged. But I do not believe that we will begin to get through till we frankly face the fact that our Christian religion is not something to while away a couple of hours on Sunday, but must become marching orders to make a decent world for us and all men.

DON'T GET FLUSTERED

From Edmonton Bulletin
Going "jittery" does no one any good. It wastes energy, and just now energy can be put into something useful. Excited people cannot think clearly, plan correctly, nor act to a purpose. Nothing would suit the Nazi aims better than that Allied peoples should get flustered. "Total war" is based on the supposition that their morale can be broken down by savagery, their resistance paralyzed by fear. In so far as people in Canada lose self-control the fighting power of the nation will fall short of what it can be.

World Meat-Larder Far From Bare

By EMILY C. DAVIS

THE FAMOUS KILLING of the goose, that laid the golden eggs is matched unwillingly in Europe today by large-scale slaughter of food animals—including dairy cows that provide milk, butter and cheese.

Result: Meat on dinner tables in embattled countries today, but perhaps less by the end of 1940. It takes about three years to breed and bring beef cattle to market stage; six months for hogs.

A dairy cow starts giving milk at about two years.

Whether this will actually lead the world into a meat shortage, food economists hesitate to predict. It depends, they say, on the length and course of the war, and how well countries involved can keep the livestock replacements up.

HIGH LEVEL

Encouragingly, the world's meat cupboard is far from bare. On the contrary, outbreak of war found Britain, cattle, hogs, and sheep at fairly high level. By latest estimates, the world's dairy and meat cattle totaled about 697,000,000; hogs, 294,000,000; sheep, 634,000,000, all larger totals than averages a few years back.

The champion beef exporter of the world, Argentina for example, had a 6 per cent larger supply of beef in 1939 than in 1938. England's cattle and sheep were near record high. Germany had 2,000,000 more hogs than in 1938. Small Denmark when invaded by Germany had in the fields the largest number of cattle in her history—3,258,000. Danish pigs, however, were fewer than in some recent years.

The United States, recovering from bad drought years of 1934 and 1936, has been increasing its livestock, though there is little likelihood of a tremendous all-time high such as their cattle production reached in 1918. In this war, Europe prefers to buy guns and airplanes from the United States rather than meat and bread.

THREE CAUSES

Killing of meat and dairy animals in countries hard-pressed by war needs is attributed to varied causes: There is shortage of feed for animals; grazing land provides more food if it can be sowed to grain. Devastation has swept large farming areas. In Finland, thousands of cattle were slaughtered when Finns evacuated the area given up to Russia. Agriculturists commented tersely: It solved the meat problem, at expense of the future.

Great Britain, warned by her advisers to plan for a long war, has actually increased her cattle, in spite of heavy slaughter, according to a sample census taken this spring. Britain's sheep have not yet decreased, and hogs not much.

WAR USURPS PUBLIC INTEREST OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

From Toronto Telegram

This is the period in a Presidential year when the American newspapers would ordinarily be filled with the aspirations of the contenders for party nominations and prophecies of victory by the publicity agents. But the gigantic struggle for the salvation of civilization now raging in northern France has pushed these sham battles of a nation still at peace, out of sight. The American people are not anxious to get into this war but they are realistic enough to know that it may yet be necessary if democracy is to be saved. Many of them have little stomach for politics in a crisis like the present. As some of their foremost journalists have remarked the outcome of a state party primary is of small consequence when ancient nations and cities are being ground beneath the heel of the invader.

Yet the U.S. constitution calls for a Presidential election contest every four years, with voting on November 5. An intricate electoral system has grown up which even a civil war could not upset. It will function as usual this year, although—Dorothy Thompson, newspaper columnist, writing from Paris, has proposed that President Roosevelt be given an acclamation. The President has too many enemies to permit this to happen, but coming from such a keen observer of international affairs as Dorothy Thompson it is a tribute to Mr. Roosevelt's appraisal of the issues now in the scales and an intimation that he can be trusted in time of crisis.

Le Jour of Montreal proclaims in a line across its front page that there can be "no liberty for the assassins of liberty." However much they may be tolerated in times of peace, they cannot be allowed to do what they like when a nation is at war.

There is one thing for which many of us have reason to feel grateful to Hitler. Because of the war the international association which fixes the rules of bridge has decided to put off the revision of these rules, made every five years, and that was due in 1940.

But the picture of British livestock supplies is regarded as less satisfactory than this summary would indicate, since the reports show that even dairy cattle, which got priority of feed, have often been on short rations and have given less milk.

It is forecast that by next year England's meat animals will diminish in number, and the United Kingdom will be anxiously purchasing more heavily abroad than now—or eating less meat. Even this year, Britain is buying more beef from South America, more lamb from New Zealand than last year. Canada is supplying large quantities of pork.

Just now it is patriotic to eat pork in England, as it is in Canada, to consume quantities of this meat on hand. British refrigeration facilities do not permit storing pork in great quantities.

"FAT GAP"

Fate of Denmark's fine herds is being watched by statisticians who follow the "food war." How long Germany expects to fight may be indicated by the recklessness or caution shown toward Danish farm animals. Already, large numbers of Denmark's young pigs and hogs not up to market weight are reported to be slaughtered.

What has happened to the meat and dairy supplies in Poland, the Netherlands, Belgium and north of France cannot yet be summarized. Admitting that the "fat gap" is the weakest point in her nutrition, Germany has tried determinedly to keep up milk production in the Reich, and to avoid such wholesale killing of stock as she came to in the World War. "Swine murder" some German critics called it, in World War days, when 8,000,000 hogs were killed in a year and when cattle were reduced in 1918 from nearly 22,000,000 to less than 18,000,000.

REFUGEE FAMINE?

The food war has caused misery to unfortunate countries that sought to be neutral and found themselves overrun by invaders. Their lands wrecked by armies, their people driven about as refugees, they are first to face famine danger. The expanded Reich has temporarily lessened the force of the Allied food blockade, by gaining power over supplies in invaded countries, and by gaining laborers, however inexperienced, who can be drafted to work German farms.

Britain, however, has not found her food shipments from overseas seriously menaced by German submarines and mines. In the main, Allied losses have been more than made up by German cargoes the Allies have seized. Entrance of Italy into war on the side of Germany is a serious blow to the French food supply, which has been moving steadily across the Mediterranean from African colonies, not heretofore interfered with by Italy.

DOCTRINE OF ISOSTASY

By Science Service

LEONARDO DA VINCI, artist-engineer-scientist of the 16th century, pioneered in the modern geological concept of isostasy, a recently translated extract from his notebooks shows. Isostasy is the doctrine that sections of the earth's crust "float" like rafts on a stiffly viscous rock mass beneath, and that if a part of the load is shifted the "raft" tilts. Thus when soil and gravel are washed from a mountain mass into the sea, the sea bottom sinks and the mountains rise proportionately.

In the current issue of the weekly journal, Science, Dr. John P. Delaney, calls attention to this passage from da Vinci: "That part of the surface of any heavy body will become more distant from the centre of its gravity which becomes of greater lightness. The earth therefore, the element by which the rivers carry away the slopes of mountains and bear them to the sea, is the place from which such gravity is removed; it will make itself lighter and in consequence will make itself more remote from the centre of gravity of the earth, that is from the centre of gravity of the universe which is always concentric with the centre of gravity of the earth. . . . The summits of the mountains in course of time rise continually."

Defence Rules Go Under Review

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King's resolution calling for review of Defence of Canada regulations was approved in the House of Commons last night after three days of debate. Without a vote the House adopted the resolution which names a 15-man committee to examine into all phases of the regulations and to recommend any provision that may seem necessary.

The regulations, proclaimed at the start of the war under authority of the War Measures Act, are designed to enable federal authorities to preserve internal security and give wide powers to the Justice Department to intern aliens or others suspected as potential enemies of the state.

George Black, Conservative, Yukon, said he was satisfied to leave the maintenance of internal security to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe. He believed the regulations were adequate and no good purpose could be served by referring them to a committee.

Walter Tucker, Liberal, Rosthern, Sask., said that his riding contained more people of German birth than any other in Canada and that many of them endorsed Canada's war effort by giving him a big majority in the election last March. He warned, however, that there were Nazi agents in the west attempting to mislead loyal German-Canadians.

URGES CONFIDENCE

Mr. Lapointe urged Canadians to have confidence in federal authorities charged with preserving internal security.

The minister vehemently denied political motives had influenced either the R.C.M.P. or him-

"Down where we come from people don't know what rest is." This is Mr. and Mrs. Stegner's second visit to Victoria. They were here last year during the Royal Visit. "We were sorry to have missed the Strawberry Week ceremony at the Parliament Buildings the other night," Mrs. Stegner said, adding that strawberries were part of their daily diet while they are in town. "We don't get anything like them in Los Angeles," she said. Mr. Stegner is head of one of California's largest cabinet-making factories which does a great deal of work for the moving-picture studios in Hollywood and the film stars in their palatial homes. France's Appeal to U.S.

Clouds of Warplanes Needed, Says Reynaud

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE (CP-Havas).—Following is the text of the radio speech made by Premier Paul Reynaud last night: In the hour which has swept down on us, there is first of all one thing to be said. At the moment when fate overwhelms us I wish to cry out to the world the heroism of the French armies, the heroism of our soldiers, the heroism of their leaders.

I have seen, coming from battle, men who had not slept for five days, harassed by airplanes, wearied by marching and fighting. These men, whose nerves the enemy thought he could break, had no doubt about the final result of the war; they did not doubt about the future of the Fatherland.

The heroism of the armies of Dunkerque has been surpassed in the battles which have been fought from the sea to the Argonne.

The south of France is not conquered.

RECORD OF CENTURIES

Our race will not allow itself to be beaten by invasion. The soil on which we live and have lived for so many centuries always repelled or conquered the invaders. The world must know of the sufferings of France. Free men everywhere on earth must know what they owe to her. The hour has come for them to pay their debt.

The French army was the vanguard of the army of democracy. It has sacrificed itself, but in losing this battle it delivered frightful blows against the common enemy. The hundreds of tanks destroyed, airplanes shot down, losses in men, synthetic gasoline plants in flames—all that explains the present state of morale of the German people, despite its victories.

France, wounded, has a right to turn toward the other democracies and to say to them, "We have a claim on you."

None of those with a sense of justice can deny her this. But it is one thing to approve and another thing to act.

We know what a high place ideals hold in the life of the great American people. Will they hesitate longer to declare themselves against Nazi Germany? I have asked that of President Roosevelt, as you know. This evening I am addressing to him a new and last appeal.

Each time that I have asked the President of the United States to increase in all forms the aid permitted by the American law, he has done so generously and has been approved by his people.

But today it no longer is a question of that. Today the life of France is at stake—the reasons France has for living.

Our battle, each day more painful, has no further sense if in carrying it on, we cannot see, even after all, the growing hope of common victory.

The superiority and quality of British aviation is showing itself. MANY SQUADRONS NEEDED.

It will be necessary that clouds of warplanes from across the Atlantic come to crash the evil force which dominates Europe.

Despite our reverses, the power of the democracies remains immense. We have the right to hope that the day is approaching when all that power will be thrown into the scale. That is why we maintain hope in our hearts. That is why, too, we have determined that France shall keep a free government, and for that reason we have left Paris.

It was necessary to prevent Hitler from suppressing the legal government and declaring to the world that France had only a puppet government, in his pay, like those he has tried to set up elsewhere.

In the great trials of their history our people have known days when they might have been troubled by counsels of defeatists. It is because they never surrendered that they were great.

Whatever may happen in the days to come, the French are going to suffer.

May they be worthy of the nation's past! May they become brothers! May they throw about their wounded fatherland!

The day of resurrection will come!

Italy Takes War Beyond Europe

NEW YORK (CP)—The Marquis of Lothian, British ambassador to the United States, speaking at the New York World's Fair on United Kingdom Day, said:

"The most serious aspect of Mussolini's entry into the war is that he is taking the step which may turn the European war into a world war. Until he acted, there was some hope the conflict might be confined to Europe. This is much less likely now."

While he spoke the Italian pavilion at the fair was heavily guarded.

Mayors Name Officers

OTTAWA (CP)—Mayor Stanley Lewis of Ottawa will continue as president of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities and Mayor Ralph C. Day of Toronto will continue as treasurer, the annual convention decided yesterday on recommendation of the nominating committee.

The nominating committee urged that no drastic changes be made in the executive in view of the gravity of the war situation. The national executive, recommended by the nominating com-

Want Bettors' Money

LONDON (CP)—Oswald Lewis, Conservative member of Parliament, suggested today to Sir Kingsley Wood, Chancellor of the Exchequer, that all betting and bookmaking be suppressed and be replaced by issuance of loan bonds on which periodical drawings could be based, so "the large sums which otherwise would be used for betting would be lent to the state instead."

NEW QUICK LUX

—keep them soft, fluffy, new-looking years longer.

BLANKET-WASHING TIME is here. Save money—have blankets that look lusciously soft and clean—by using new, quick Lux.

Easy LUX way

Make extra-rich Lux suds—have them as cool as your hand. (Hot water tends to shrink wool.) Squeeze suds gently through blanket—never rub or twist. If you use a washing machine, run it only 5 minutes. Rinse the blanket thoroughly in water the same temperature as the suds. Dry in the shade over two or three parallel lines.

Avoid cake-soap rubbing—soaps with harmful alkali. These may fade or streak colors, shrink wool, leave it harsh and scratchy. Remember—safe in water, safe in new, quick Lux.

MOVIE PRODUCERS TEST WAR PICTURES

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Those in movieland who hold that war pictures will do good business in wartime will know soon whether several such ventures were ill-timed or pieces of smart showmanship.

Nearly every company is making or planning war films, but one studio announced today it isn't making any battle epics and doesn't intend to.

"We believe there's enough war in the papers and on the air," said the RKO production chief, J. J. Nolan. "We're striving for lighter entertainment."

A spokesman for another studio explained: "The industry is gambling $5-100,000 or so. If the public does not want war pictures, we'll find it out soon. But we have a hunch a good Allied victory or two would be the impulse needed to put them over."

Best box office attraction of recent months with a war angle was "The Fighting 69th," "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," which preceded hostilities, is being re-issued, up to date, in time with the spurred fifth column drive. Its first week returns were spotty.

"My Son, My Son," a dramatic effort, did a generally disappointing business, exhibitors reported. There are a half a dozen others, including Charlie Chaplin's expensive story kidding dictators, which is due to be released in September.

Change Would Be Bad
If the sun were slightly further away, or closer than it now is, man could not live on the earth. His needs are so exacting that a very slight change in the amount of heat, air and moisture on earth would snuff out his life.

NEW YORK POLICE CHECK FASCISTS

NEW YORK (AP) — Intensified police vigilance has been ordered here following a warning by an undisclosed federal agency that Italian consuls-general in the United States had been instructed to further the cause of Fascism in this country.

All city police commanders were assembled in a secret conference at which they were given a 25-page report summarizing results of an investigation by the federal agency.

Asked to comment on reports that Italian officials had been told to conduct propaganda campaigns in newspapers, schools and over the radio, attaches at the Italian consulate here said: "We are not authorized to make any statement regarding political matters."

Mayor LaGuardia in an address last Monday advised consular agents to "adhere strictly to their consular duties."

There are more than 1,000,000 persons of Italian descent in New York City. The memorandum handed ranking police officers and inspectors of the criminal alien, sabotage and bomb squads contained instructions to make arrests wherever and wherever necessary.

'Strangewood' To Be Scene of Fete

"Strangewood," Marine Drive, Gordon Head, the residence of Col. S. L. and Mrs. McMullen, is to be the scene on Wednesday, June 26, of one of the most unique garden parties ever convened in Victoria. It is pointed out that every Victorian should know "Strangewood," if only to be able to tell visitors of this beauty spot which is open to the public every Wednesday afternoon. And the garden party to be held there on behalf of the Red Cross will be a wonderful opportunity to see this lovely garden at its best.

At a meeting of the executive committee this week reports of arrangements were made. Among the popular attractions for the entertainment of the visitors will be all the time-honored shows and games, without which no such event is complete. Prizes for the various games make up a very "long list" and comprise everything from a ton of coal to a package of tea. Being held on a Wednesday afternoon will make it possible for almost everyone to be present, and it is being arranged with the Island Coach Lines to put on special buses for transportation.

It is pointed out also for those who might stay away because of home duties, that at the home cooked food stalls it will be possible to purchase "the makings" for dinner to take home after the fete is over. Highland dancing, pipe band, folk dancing, Girl Guide performances and other activities will also be included in the program. And it is also pointed out by the committee that the entrance fee is so nominal that even the youngsters may be included without stretching the family budget unduly.

Willows P.T.A. Names Officers for Year

Combining social and business, the Willows P.T.A. held its final meeting of the year in the school auditorium Tuesday evening. Highly entertaining was a clever sketch, "Will You—Won't You?" with the following taking part: Mesdames Day, Dutot, Proudfoot and Lockhead. Nancy Stephenson rendered piano solos and vocal solos were contributed by Mr. F. Wright, accompanied by Mrs. F. Wright and Mr. J. Matheson, accompanied by Mrs. J. Matheson.

General business included a donation of $10 to the Oak Bay Red Cross and the setting aside of a fund for visual education in the school. The annual report of the social convener indicated a beneficial season. Officers appointed for the following year will be: President, Mrs. L. Stevenson; vice-president, Mr. E. Cooper; secretary, Mr. H. E. Farquhar; treasurer, Mrs. Young. The retiring members of the executive: Miss H. Knight and Mesdames Lovitt and Rensison, were thanked for their endeavors. Added to the executive were: Mesdames Bewley and Proudfoot. Winners of tombola prizes, resulting from the proceeds of Bridges held through the kindness of individual members, were Mrs. G. Connell, Mr. E. Cooper and Mr. G. Connell.

At the conclusion, Mrs. Stevenson thanked all members of the association for their endeavors in assisting to establish the Willows' association as a working unit of the school. Give First Donation Towards Bomber

Fifty dollars was subscribed by the members present at the meeting of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., held yesterday towards the chapter's contribution toward the Bolingbrook bomber to be presented by the I.O.D.E. to the government of Canada for service overseas.

It was decided to raise the money by private subscription as far as possible, so as to leave the chapter's funds for other needs which may arise. Representatives of the chapter will be at headquarters during the morning of Thursday, June 27, to receive voluntary contributions toward the bomber.

The chapter stood in silence at the commencement of their meeting in memory of Mrs. R. P. Wallis, who passed away since the last meeting. The secretary was asked to write to letter of sympathy to Mrs. Lawson of Powell River, daughter of Mrs. Wallis. The regent, Mrs. Christie, thanked Mrs. Bertha Parson, Miss Georgina Herd and all who had helped to make the garden party held recently at Miss Crease such a success. The Misses Crease will be thanked by letter for their hospitality.

Bills amounting to $68 were ordered paid and $9 raised by the cushion contest was added to the war fund.

A letter will be sent to Mr. Harris thanking the Kinsmen boys band and their leader, Al Freecott, for their splendid music at the garden party.

Miss Georgina Herd gave the war report, and asked for more old leather to be used for vests for sailors on boats patrolling the North Sea. It was decided to hold the next meeting on Thursday, July 4.

Institute Women Send Help to Finnish Marttas

The money was collected to pay the affiliation fee of the Finnish Marttas to the Associated Countrywomen of the World. Only $35 was needed for the fee, and the remaining $40 was forwarded to Finland to help the Marttas in their reconstruction work.

At the meeting held yesterday in the Parliament Buildings, Mrs. McGregor read Mme. Gripenberg's letter, which said in part: "I have just come back from Finland and would like you to know that I have seen the excellent work that these women are doing, and I have learned of their wonderful courage and hard work during the Finnish war. You could have chosen no cause worthier for I am sure that every halfpenny will be well spent, with much thought behind it."

This international sympathy and the thought of your members has touched us all very deeply, and we wish to thank you from the bottom of our hearts. If any of your members ever come to London, and I am still here, will you tell them that they will find a warm welcome at the Finnish Legation in London."

Mrs. McGregor, the president, and the following board members, attended the meeting, which was held in the office of the superintendent, Mrs. V. S. McLachlan. Mrs. M. E. Noble, Hatzic, first vice-president; Mrs. J. F. Price, Vancouver, second

Victorians Overseas Appreciate Gifts

Dr. W. E. M. Mitchell of Victoria, who is now serving overseas, has written an appreciative letter to the Royal Oak Women's Institute expressing many thanks for the flashlights sent by the institute to former Victoria boys now serving overseas. He was in Aldershot at the time the flashlights were distributed to the Canadians, the gift proving a boon during blackouts.

The letter was read by the president, Miss K. Oldfield, at yesterday's meeting of the institute held in the Royal Oak Hall. Mrs. F. Reeves, convener of the committee, also announced that 1,000 cigarettes had been sent by the institute to the Beaver Club in London for the boys.

Mrs. B. Hoole read an article on blankets made from discarded woollen. Mrs. A. P. Hobbs suggested the Arts and Crafts committee will be responsible to collect if possible 100 pounds of clean discarded woollens to be made into blankets.

In response to the appeal for funds the treasurer was instructed to send a donation of $2 to the Tuberculosis Veterans.

Another letter of protest against the closing of Royal Oak and Prospect Lake schools will be sent to the Saanich School Board as no answer was received regarding the first one sent a month ago. The president read an appreciative letter which she received by Mrs. W. Mitchell, who is now serving in Aldershot, and was present at the time the flashlights sent by the institute were given out. Mrs. F. Reeves reported 1,000 cigarettes had been sent to the Beaver Club in London for the boys.

A concert with a modern dance following will be held in the Community Hall tonight under the auspices of the Royal Oak and Craigflower Women's Institutes. The annual strawberry 500 card party will be held Thursday, June 20, at 8. An institute basket picnic will be held at Sayward's Beach, Thursday, August 8, at 11 a.m. Members interested in home-makers' classes are asked to give their name to the secretary as early as possible as classes will be started at Lake Hill.

Meetings will be discontinued during July and August. Refreshments were served by the Arts and Crafts committee.

Princess Juliana Finds Haven in Quebec

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL, Que. — Princess Juliana of the Netherlands accepted today the refuge of this quiet Ottawa Valley district while her baby daughters, to young to know of the war that drove them from their homeland, played happily and partook of their democratic fare of sunshine and vegetable mush.

The Dutch princess and her two babies reached this little French-Canadian village, 45 miles from Ottawa, yesterday after a journey overseas by warship and a 27-hour trip by rail from Halifax, where they landed Tuesday. They moved immediately into a long mansion nestled in the green slopes of Montbello's outskirts.

Blonde and slim Elaine Corbett gave her opinion of the simple diet of the princesses. "Just as good for royal children as for other kiddies."

Miss Corbett told how she had been ordered unexpectedly last week to Halifax from Bridge water, N.S., where she was doing child welfare work as a member of the Royal Victorian Order of Nurses.

Sunday she reported to a train standing in the yards at Halifax, not yet knowing what was her special assignment. Wednesday Princess Juliana, her daughters and party boarded the train. Only then did the nurse learn that she was to help "Miss Piet," the Dutch nurse of the little princesses.

But there wasn't much help to give. When Nurse Piet went off duty, it was Princess Juliana who cared for her babies.

The Columbia Unit of the Red Cross Society held its monthly meeting in the Strawberry Vale Hall on Wednesday, with Mrs. Alcock in the chair. There was a good attendance of workers and a large number of well-finished garments was returned. Two donations to the Red Cross were reported, several pairs of socks from Mrs. Deane Cox and used blankets from Miss Milne.

It was decided to hold a garden

Mrs. J. E. Cuzner, who is on the committee of the Solarium Junior League arranging tomorrow's garden party at "Molton Combe," Newport Ave., the home of Mrs. Curtis Sampson.

Clubwomen's News

The W.A. Britannia Branch No. 7, Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. met Tuesday evening in the board room, the president, Mrs. H. Miller, in the chair. A paper registration of aliens was read by Mrs. F. F. Morris. A blanket fund was started and Mrs. A. Hall named convener of same. A garden party will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Spouse, Arm Street, on July 18, proceeds to go to the blanket fund. Two new members were initiated, Mrs. M. Wallace and Mrs. M. A. Alexander. Mrs. E. Jarvis was elected convener for the war knitting. The birthday party for June will be held at the home of Mrs. P. Stevenson, 1309 Yates Street, on June 18. It was decided not to close the meetings during the summer. A cribbage game will be held in the clubrooms, June 20, Mr. H. Jarvis in charge. Mrs. E. M. Jones and Mrs. H. Miller will attend Legion funerals and Mrs. F. Robe will keep fresh flowers on the memorial tablet.

The W.A. Britannia Branch No. 7, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., held a successful strawberry tea at the home of Mrs. G. Ree, 179 Bushy Street, Wednesday afternoon. Tea was served on the lawn overlooking Ross Bay, which made a lovely background for the summer flowers in the garden. The small tables were covered with embroidered tablecloths, centred with miniature vases which contained pansies and white carnations, making a very pleasing picture. The fancy-work stall convener by Mrs. V. Smith did a thriving business, as did the house-hold in charge of Mrs. R. Spouse; Mrs. A. Hall was in charge of tea-tickets; Mrs. H. F. Grantrose had a cake-guessing contest, which was won by Mrs. E. Hampton. Tea-cup reading was done by Mrs. V. Smith and Mrs. E. M. Jones. Mrs. D. Ree won the special prize which was in charge of Mrs. E. Jarvis. Mrs. J. Hudson presided at the tea-urn and serving the guests were Mesdames P. Stevenson, E. Dring, E. Broadbent, M. Roberts, E. Hampton and Miss H. Ree. In the evening court what was played; prize-winners were: Mrs. J. Hudson, Miss E. Lang, Mrs. W. Renfrew, and Mrs. P. Britton, after which refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Hudson.

Allies Chapter, I.O.E., met at St. Augustine's Hall, Deep Cove, June 6, the second vice-regent, Mrs. C. W. Peck, in the chair and 21 members present. After the prayer the members stood in silence to the memory of the late Mrs. W. H. Belson, a life member of Allies' Chapter and of the Provincial Chapter. Several letters of thanks were read, also a letter asking the chapter to sponsor the "Deep Cove Guides"; this matter was passed unanimously. The educational secretary reported members had visited local schools on Empire Day and presented books to their library. The North Saanich High School receives a yearly subscription to the National Geographic from the chapter.

The war convener reported sending 74 magazines and two games to the R.C.A.P. There were six pairs socks, five sweaters, three scarfs and two helmets handed in; $25 had been sent to the Solarium for summer clothing and a child had been received a specially-made pair of boots. It was decided to hold the annual house-to-house Solarium collection the week of June 17 to 22. A vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. King for her collection boxes sealed and ready.

Flowers are to be sent from local gardens to the military hospital at Work Point. It was decided to hold a garden party at the home of Mrs. E. J. Baker on July 24. Mrs. Keet resigned as tea convener and was thanked by the chapter for her work in this capacity. Mrs. Newton will be tea convener in the future. Tea was served by Mrs. Sparkes and Mrs. McIntyre.

If You Like Sausages Made of Sugar and Spice

While many people look upon sausages primarily as a breakfast delicacy, those who really like them know that they may be used in a great number of ways for any meal of the day. On a cold, wintry day sausages cooked in a crockle sauce and served with snowy mounds of boiled rice make a most satisfying meal; or you might prefer cabbage stuffed with a mixture of sausage meat and apples and baked in a moderate oven until savory and tender, then served with baked potatoes and a crisp green salad. Thick pea soup with little crisp rounds of fried sausage floating on top makes an excellent luncheon dish, while chips of fried sausage mixed with scrambled eggs may be used either for breakfast or luncheon. Sausages baked in blankets of biscuit dough and served with tomato or mushroom sauce are also good; or rounds of canned pineapple covered with a layer of sausage meat and broiled until brown, then served on rounds of toast, are sure to please by the novelty of the combination—to say nothing of their deliciousness.

Now that your appetites are whetted by reading of these goodies, here is the way to make them:

Sausages in Crockle Sauce: Prick 1½ pounds large pork sausages with a fork and fry gently until beginning to brown. Lift from the pan and add to the sausage fat ½ cup sliced onion and a thin slice from a clove of garlic. Let cook slowly until golden brown, then add 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, a little black pepper and 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper. Let the mixture cook for 10 minutes, add the partly-cooked sausages and boil slowly for 20 minutes. Arrange the sausages around a mound of boiled rice, thicken the sauce with 2 teaspoons flour mixed with a little cold water and pour it over the rice.

Cabbage Stuffed With Sausage: and Apples: Trim a medium-sized firm head of cabbage, cut off the stem, and scoop out the cabbage to form a bowl with an inch-thick rim. Mix 1 pound sausage meat with 3 cups coarsely chopped raw apples, 1 cup soft bread crumbs and 1 well-beaten egg. Mix thoroughly and fill the cabbage in a deep casserole, surround with the cabbage taken from the centre and chopped fine. Pour ½ cup water over this chopped cabbage and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover the casserole and bake in a moderate oven—350 degrees—until very tender or for about 2½ hours. Lift the cabbage carefully to a hot platter, surround with the chopped cabbage and serve with a sauce made from the juice in the baking dish flavored with a little tomato catsup and thickened slightly with flour. If there is an excess of fat in the juice, skim it off before thickening.

Pineapple and Sausage Mounds: Drain large slices of canned pineapple and cover each one with a layer of sausage meat shaped about ½ inch thick. Place in a shallow baking dish and bake each round with a teaspoonful of pineapple juice. Cook in the broiling oven of a gas range or a very hot oven until the sausage meat is well browned and cooked through. Baste twice during the cooking period (about every 5 minutes) with pineapple juice. Remove to rounds of thin toast, remove to rounds of thin toast, and serve with baked potatoes or mashed sweet potatoes and broccoli with lemon butter.

Sausage chips and scrambled eggs: Rub a heavy fryer pan with a cut clove of garlic. Cut link sausages in thin slices and try until crisp and brown in the hot fryer pan (no fat is needed). Drain off the fat that cooks out of the sausages, leaving about 2 tablespoons in the pan. Beat 6 eggs until frothy, add ½ cup milk and a dash of pepper, mix and pour into the hot fat. Stir constantly until the eggs are creamy. Serve at once.

Cook sausage chips as above and 6 or 8 chips in each portion of pea or bean soup and serve with plenty of melba toast.

Bacon and Egg Sandwiches: Two hard-cooked eggs (chopped), ½ teaspoon minced onions, ½ teaspoon minced celery, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon celery seed, 1 tablespoon catsup, 2 tablespoons bacon (cooked and chopped).

Mix ingredients and use as filling for hot-buttered toast slices. Keep hard-cooked eggs in refrigerator so they can be quickly converted into snacks after movies, beach parties or when friends drop in.

Pianoforte Pupils Presented in Recital

The pianoforte pupils of Miss Macquinn Daniels gave a pleasing recital before a large gathering of parents and friends on Wednesday evening in the hall at 738 Fort Street. The performers, ranging from beginners to advanced pupils, gave evidence of careful training, their playing being technically clear and showing thought and imagination.

Prizes were presented by Mrs. J. Hebben Gillespie to two of the students not taking exams, for enthusiasm and progress, the recipients being Dorothy Willis and Beverley Bugslag. Mrs. Gillespie commended the pupils on their performance and stressed the importance of hard work and the sacrifice of lesser pleasures to become masters of their art. She was presented with a corsage of gerbers by Beverley Bugslag.

John Bray, baritone, the assisting artist, sang two groups of songs in his usual good style. Mr. A. J. Daniels presided and made some appropriate remarks regarding the cultivation of the art of music by young people.

Miss Daniels was presented with a bowl filled with flowers by some of the juniors and a flower vase and corsage by the seniors.

Jean Routley, Doreen Briggs and Dorothy Bishop each presented one of her own pupils.

Those taking part were: Marjorie Ann Fyfe, Theodora Gubbels, Marjorie Olton, Beverley Bugslag, Doreen Dopp, Dorothy Willis, Patricia McClement, Audrey Miller, Shirley Campbell, Mary Peterson, Olive Cameron, Phyllis Dawkins, Dorothy Parfitt, Jean Routley, Eddie Hulford, Helen Parfitt, Dorothy Bishop, Doreen Briggs.

Community Concerts Winds Up Affairs

The annual meeting of the Community Concerts Association was held last evening at the Y.W.C.A., Mrs. Alton Peebles, the president, in the chair. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were given, and the future of the association discussed, when the subject the members had previously been canvassed, and it was unanimously decided, owing to the war, not to continue the concert series.

It was also decided to hand the bank balance of over $100 to the Musical Arts Society, which had sponsored the Community Concerts Association at its inception.

Police Called To Clear Fans

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

TIME was when major league ball clubs regarded the colleges as a very negligible source of talent, but scouts today are taking a good look—and a second look—at the campus heroes.

The attention is paying dividends. You can't find a major league team that doesn't have a couple of college products in the line-up, and some more coming up.

Reason: simply that college baseball is getting better. Old timers like Jack Coombs at Duke, Wally Roettger at Illinois, Billy Ditch at Texas, Andy Cookley at Columbia and Smokey Joe Wood at Yale give the finest possible coaching.

The smaller schools, too, are playing a slick brand of ball. Johnny Vander Meer was the first to pitch two consecutive no-hitters, but Western State Teachers College of Kalamazoo went the Cincinnati southpaw one better.

Probably for the first time in college history two men pitched no-hitters in a double-header when Frank Overmire, junior left-hander, and Harry Bailey, senior right-hander, worked perfect games against Iowa State Teachers, both winning 1 to 0.

Overmire allowed the minimum of 27 men to face him, not one reaching first. Bailey, who pitched a one-hitter against Wisconsin earlier this year, walked two men.

The Chicago White Sox already have signed Wilbur White, phenomenal Bradley Tech hurler.

The New York Yankees are reported very much interested in George Stirmweiss, the North Carolina grid star and second baseman.

Bob Winslow, Southern California pitcher, has signed with Los Angeles, managed by Arnold (Jigger) Stutz, one-time Brooklyn Dodger and Chicago Cub star. Joe Wood has two sons pitching for Yale and Colgate, and Smokey Joe Jr., pitched a no-hitter for the Ellis against Wesleyan recently.

The baseball spotlight will be focused this week-end on the four-game collision of Cincinnati Reds and Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, in the hope that the violent struggle there will indicate the eventual National League champion.

The ball park, seating approximately 35,000 persons, has been sold out for today, tomorrow and Sunday and police reserves had to be summoned in Brooklyn yesterday to clear away thousands of fans clamoring for tickets in front of the Dodger offices.

Both leagues swung into action on new fronts today, the National League in the eastern sector and the American in the west.

Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers staged a red-hot interlude yesterday while the other clubs were traveling and the Indians eventually triumphed 3 to 2 in 10 innings.

The victory lifted the Tribe back into second place.

COAST LEAGUE

The Coast League leadership, jostled between Seattle and Oakland four times in the last week, was in Seattle's hands again today.

The Oaks could get nowhere last night when they faced Pitcher Ray Harrell, who limited them to two hits while the Portland pals, the league's cellar aggregation, broke an eight-game losing streak and administered their opponents a 4 to 0 drubbing.

Seattle's 4 to 2 triumph over San Diego also was Pitcher Hal Turpin's 11th victory of the season.

Sacramento smothered Hollywood, 11 to 1, each team getting 13 hits. Three of the Solons' smackers, however, were round-trippers by catcher Jim Gritik, centerfielder Lynn King and leftfielder Jim Asbell, which accounted for six runs.

Johnny Barrett, San Francisco centerfielder, co-starred with pitcher Sam Gibson while the Seals overwhelmed Los Angeles 8 to 1. Barrett knocked in four runs and got three hits, including a homer, in four tries, while Gibson held the Angels to eight scattered hits.

Frank Frisch is the most striking example of a collegian who jumped from the campus to a big-league park. The one-time Fordham Flash went straight to the Polo Grounds, but some of the brightest stars in the game today spent only a couple of seasons in the minors before making the grade in the big time.

Charley Keller was only two years out of Maryland before going into the Yankee outfield from Newark. Joe Gordon, his second-basing teammate, spent only a couple of years in the minors. So, too, did Lou Boudreau and Ray Mack, the Cleveland Indians' second-base combination who came from Illinois and Case.

Babe Young of the New York Giants was at Fordham only a few seasons ago and Sam Chapman of the Philadelphia A's was an All-America at California in 1937.

Herb Hash of the Boston Red Sox was flinging 'em for the University of Richmond just a couple of seasons back.

It doesn't take the collegians long to catch on—and stay on in the big time.

Players Ask Vitt Be Fired

CLEVELAND (AP) — Veteran members of the Cleveland Indians personally laid before President Alva Bradley a demand that Manager Oscar Vitt be fired.

The mass protest, believed unprecedented in major league baseball history, came as a majority of the players confronted Bradley on their return from a disastrous eastern trip where they lost eight of 13 games.

The players told Bradley they could not play the kind of baseball of which they are capable as long as Vitt remained at the helm. Their charges, according to the newspaper Plain Dealer, included insincerity, ridiculing of players and caustic criticism.

Although the meeting was kept secret, Bradley later admitted that "a few of the boys wanted certain things corrected."

"Naturally I am going to look into the matter," Bradley said, "but until I have investigated thoroughly I can't say what action will be taken."

Vitt informed of the protest by reporters, was amazed and at first thought it was a joke.

Hearing the details he said, "I thought I had the full co-operation of all my players." He reserved further comment until he could confer with Bradley.

Snappy Riding At Bike Races

Snappy bike riding was seen at the Cycledrome last evening with Eric Whitehead and Gar Warren featuring the senior events and Ron Limer capturing Class B honors.

Whitehead and Warren rode a thrilling win in the half-hour time race, the main event on the program. Showing marked superiority on the change-overs, the boys soon stepped into the lead with points, winning over the team of Jack Barton and Neil Duval 53 points to 35.

Two junior teams composed of Limer and Pete Tyson, Alan and Roy Duval, also competed in the event, but found the seniors to be a little too much despite a two-lap handicap given them.

The two senior teams lapped the juniors on the second and third miles and again on the seventh to wipe away the handicap.

Whitehead ran up 19 points to win the 20-lap A class with a sprint every four laps race over Warren, who was second with 15 points, and Barton, who collected 11 points for third place. The winning time was 5:09.

The blonde-haired speedster was disqualified on the last sprint of the miss and out race when he cut inside of Barton on the last lap to take over the lead.

Limer took two B class firsts. He won over Warren George and Alan Duval in the 15-lap race with a sprint every five laps, collecting 13 points. George had nine points and Duval five. Time was 3:06 1/5.

He topped the field in a six-lap sprint with a time of 1:07 2/5. George was second again, with Duval third.

In a boys under 16 years six-lap handicap Norm Sinclair, John Burnett and Glen Grant came crashing to the boards when their pedals hit on a turn. Grant came out of it unhurt but Sinclair was removed to hospital with a five-inch splinter in his right thigh and painful burns on his legs, and Burnett was treated for a large burn on his hip.

Burnett and Grant later rode in the 10-lap race for boys under 17 years. Grant placed a nice first, with Burnett second and Bob Potter third. The time was 2:02.

EVENING GREENSOME
An evening mixed greensome competition will be played on Wednesday, June 26, at the Victoria Golf Club, from 4.30. Members intending to play are asked to sign the notice on the board in the clubhouse or phone the secretary or professional.

City Golf Finalists

Peggy Hodgson.

Margaret Sutcliffe.

Peggy Hodgson and Margaret Sutcliffe battled it out over 18 holes at the Colwood Club today for the women's city golf championship.

Yesterday's semifinals saw Miss Hodgson, tournament medalist, defeat Mrs. Arthur Dowell, defending champion, 3 and 1, and Miss Sutcliffe eliminate Mrs. J. McIlraith 1 up.

Miss Hodgson, Colwood, was the holder of the title two years ago, and Miss Sutcliffe was runner-up to Mrs. Dowell at Uplands last summer.

The final of the first flight was between Norah Wilson, Oak Bay, and Ellen Todd, Gorge Vale. The former won over Inez Carey 5 and 4, and Miss Todd defeated Mrs. C. High by a like margin.

Both finalists were forced to come from behind on the last nine holes to win. Miss Sutcliffe, after winning the first hole, dropped the succeeding four to go 3 down. The Oak Bay miss won back a hole at the sixth and a birdie gave her the eighth, but she lost the ninth, leaving Mrs. McIlraith 2 up at the turn.

working for Brunson's, and Bert Simpson and Ray Byes for Longshoremen. After allowing six hits and seven runs, Bridger retired in favor of Moir. The former had trouble locating the plate at times, but received poor support from his mates, five errors being chalked up against them. Moir was found for a lone hit.

Simpson, making his first start of the season, after working four and a third innings and allowing no runs, retired in favor of Byers. Simpson showed a streak of wildness, and the Longshoremen took no chances, rushing Byers to the rescue.

Vic Dale crashed out a long hit to centre field for a home run in the fourth.

Jack Caddell, veteran catcher of Brunson's, left the game with a split finger in the fifth. Manager Del Munro took his place and turned in a good exhibition behind the plate.

Score by innings:
Brunson's 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—175
Longshoremen 2 2 0 1 1 1 1 x—970
Batteries—Bridger, Moir and Caddell; Munro; Simpson, Byers and Berry.

Cutting short a Garrison rally in the ninth, Camerons squeezed through to a one-run victory in the second engagement. The lumbermen scored doubles in each of the third, fifth and seventh innings, while Garrison got one run in the fourth, two in the sixth and two in the ninth. Booth went the distance on the mound for Camerons, while Tesky handled the pitching duties for the Garrison.

Score by innings:
Garrison 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0—5
Camerons 0 0 2 0 2 0 x—6
Batteries—Tesky and Godmark; Booth and H. Milliken.

Senior Baseball Carded Tonight
Tonight at Athletic Park, Navy and Pitzer and Nex senior ball nines will be gunning for a top seat berth alongside Tillicum Athletics when they meet in a Rithet Cup game at 6. The loser drops down to provide company for Eagles in the cellar.

Manager Benny Southon of the bluejackets will do the twirling for his team, and he will have "Tony" Grover as his battery mate. Fred Acres, young heaver who twirled Pitzer and Nex to the championship last year, has been given the heavy duties to night. Henry Woodford will back him up behind the plate.

Cricket Tomorrow
League cricket tomorrow will bring together Incogs and Five C's at the University School grounds. In a friendly fixture Victoria Cricket Club will play Albions at Macdonald Park. Both games will start at 2.30.

Auto Races Here Tomorrow Night

Five American cars will be on hand at the Langford Speedway tomorrow night when promoter Jack Taylor presents another thrilling program of races.

Chic Barbo, the Seattle boy who gave the fans something to write home about last week with a spectacular demonstration of driving in the 30-lap main event, will have the No. 27 wagon and the 70 car which he drove last week will be throttled by Jimmy Symes of Seattle.

Lou McMurtry will pilot his new No. 6 car again and Bill Scott will be at the wheel of No. 62, the car driven last year by McMurtry.

Buddy Green in No. 23 will head the local contingent which will be composed of Don Vantreight in No. 3 which cracked through the fence last week; Jack Spaulding in No. 6, Jerry Vantreight in No. 31, Joe Moore in No. 3, who will make his first appearance of the season, and George White in No. 7. The No. 3 car which Moore will drive is the No. 10 car of last year.

In addition to the helmet dash, heat races, a match race and the main event, there will be a seven-car stock race.

PORT ANGELES BALL TEAM HERE SUNDAY

United States softballers will make their first appearance in Victoria on Sunday when Port Angeles opposes Harknett Fuel of B company in a doublebill at, traction at Hampton Road Park.

First game will start at the Spanish Park at 1.30, the second to follow immediately after.

The local fuelmen have been playing a fine brand of ball this season and at the present time are riding on the crest of the wave in the B standings. The visitors should find them good opponents.

NEW YORK (AP)—The way was cleared yesterday for the 12-round fight between Lew Jenkins and Henry Armstrong by the New York State Athletic Commission, which ruled Jenkins need not keep his appointment at New York's Broadway Arena before meeting the welterweight king at the Polo Grounds, July 17.

Everett Taylor, in charge of referees, who was given a vote of confidence in regard to his qualifications to handle his job, urged all present to secure names of persons who wish to referee. "I would like to get hold of a dozen referees, if I could," he said. He was of the opinion the four senior referees who have been doing the refereeing had done their job well.

It was stressed by some that managers, coaches, players and fans alike had protested judgment and other actions of referees many times this season. After the referee dispute last Tuesday, they said, good refereeing was the result in that night's game. "In that game there was a more harmonious atmosphere, which showed that if we talk to

Recruiting Drive Gains Impetus

British Columbia's recruiting drive was in full swing today all over the province as men from all walks of life responded to the call for 3,000 soldiers to fill up the ranks of the units listed for overseas service.

In Victoria the Canadian Scottish Regiment's recruiting office on Government Street was busy as the response here began to show some improvement.

Scottish officers renewed their appeal to have the unit filled with Island men, rather than take those from the mainland, where applications are flooding in.

The Scottish have adopted the title "Vancouver Island's Own." They need about 500 A category men to bring the battalions up to war strength.

At recruiting stations set up in other parts of the province under the direction of Lieut.-Col. H. E. Goodman, district officer, staffs were very active handling the applicants.

There were 50 recruits at Nelson and 50 at Trail yesterday when the general recruiting opened.

Major A. C. Sutton, D.S.O., M.C., who is in charge here, said the recruits were a fine type of men. West Kootenay has been asked to supply 50 men for the B.C. Regiment (D.C.O.R.) The medical board for the Kootenays includes Dr. George Foster of Vancouver and Lieut.-Col. G. C. Kenning of Victoria.

Cranbrook, asked to supply 50 men for the B.C. Regiment, reported 12 put through the first day. Recruiting is being done at the Armories there under Lieut.-Col. D. Philpott, D.S.O.; Capt. Mervyn Caverhill of Victoria is in charge of the medical board, with Lieut.-Col. F. W. Green and Dr. W. O. Green.

There will be a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. board of directors Monday at noon in Spencer's dining room. The circus executive will meet Monday at 5.15 for final reports on the show, presented at the beginning of the month.

In City Police Court this morning, one motorist was fined $10 for exceeding the speed limit, three paid $2.50 each for overparking, two the same for night parking and two similar fines for parking more than 12 inches from the curb.

A variety concert, featuring many local artists, will be held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce on Friday, June 21, at 8. Proceeds from the concert will go towards uniforms and instruments for the Victoria Boys' Band. The band will play from 7.30 until 8.

Mary Flood, 16-year-old cyclist, 710 Front Street, was knocked down and rendered unconscious when she collided with a car Wednesday afternoon at Government and Bay Streets, city police were informed yesterday by the girl's father, John Flood. No other details were given.

Shot Fired at Kid Car Thieves

After a thrilling midnight chase through the city streets, during which one shot was fired and speeds up to 70 miles an hour attained, Constable Alec Briggs finally overhauled a pair of juveniles fleeing in a stolen car last night.

Cruising along Quadra Street in a prowler car, Constable Briggs sighted the youths in an automobile reported stolen from Joseph H. Jewkes, 334 Michigan Street. A lengthy chase began at terrific speeds, the youths trying every trick to lose the pursuing constable, who finally overtook them on Douglas Street at Burnside Road after scaring them by firing a shot into the road.

In juvenile court this morning before Magistrate H. C. Hall, both pleaded guilty to the theft and were remanded until Monday.

Mr. Jewkes reported to police that his car had been stolen from in front of 624 Avalon Road.

CAFE ROBBED

Fifty dollars in bills and small change, $2 worth of cigarettes and the contents of a pin-ball machine were stolen last night by thieves who broke into the Night Owl Cafe, 860 Yates Street.

Detective P. W. Richards of the city police force attended and found that entrance was made through the transom, which was followed up.

Saanich Police today reported that a large case containing a Rogers' silver flatware set was stolen from the home of C. Woods, 23 Maddock Avenue, last night between 6.30 and 10, while Mr. Woods was away from home. Entrance was made through the back door by a pass key. Nothing else was disturbed.

Lieutenant Governor E. W. Hamber and Mrs. Hamber, Commander Victor Brodeur and Mrs. Brodeur, a group of army officers, men of the navy and the navy members of the local chapters of the I.O.D.E. and representatives of various civic bodies were loud in their praise of the new British film "For Freedom," after witnessing a preview at the Capitol Theatre this morning.

The film, which showed two of the outstanding accomplishments of the Royal Navy, the Battle of the River Plate, in which the Graf Spee was defeated in battle by H.M.S. Achilles, H.M.S. Ajax and H.M.S. Exeter, and the rescue of British prisoners aboard the Nazi supply ship Altmarr, by the H.M.S. Cossack, is one in which the power and courage of the British Navy and its seamen is fully shown.

Produced by Gainsborough (British) Pictures, the film starts with the time when Neville Chamberlain flew to Munich to sign a "no war" pact with Germany, and includes Hitler's rise to power, his promises and treaties and their consequent breaking, the expansion of the Nazi menace and England's attempts to deal with the situation in a peaceful manner to no avail.

The film's fictional characters, starring Will Fyfe as a newsreel chief whose son wishes to make a peace film, are all well-known British actors. Fyfe also lends his comedy talent to the picture which shows true British stoicism in the face of great trouble.

The final scene shows Prime Minister Winston Churchill speaking at a banquet, and adding to Nelson's historic words, "England expects every man to do his duty," the words of one of the officers on the H.M.S. Cossack as he boarded the Altmarr, "The Navy is here."

"A magnificent picture. It is difficult to realize how it was produced," said Lieutenant Governor Hamber, after seeing the preview showing.

"Most interesting and very realistic. It shows the true deeds of the navy," commented Commodore Brodeur, commanding officer of the Esquimalt Naval Base.

The film will be shown at the Capitol Theatre for one week starting tomorrow.

Health Services Meet War Needs

Special measures to adapt health, welfare and education services to wartime emergencies are being worked out through close collaboration of federal and provincial authorities; Hon. G. M. Weir, provincial secretary, said today following his return from the east.

Dr. Weir said good progress had been made in drawing up plans to meet special conditions. He had several discussions on fifth column activities. Further steps are being taken to guard against sabotage, to protect milk and water supplies and similar vital services.

The health department, he said, is laying the groundwork for guarding the general public health under war conditions, to meet the problem of casualties from the war zone and to guard against epidemics.

In regard to discussion of the Indian tuberculosis problem, Dr. Weir said there is a sum in the federal estimates sufficient to provide a 200-bed hospital near Chilliwack. The project, however, is still under advisement and a final decision is awaited.

Fishermen Are Ready for Sockeye

Peak of the British Columbia fishing season will be reached by July 1 when the fleets from all sections of the coast will be out after sockeye salmon and on the alert for the pilchard run.

Actually the salmon season opens June 30 at midnight. There is no open date for pilchards, but the fishermen will go after the only fish immediately the run is on from the south.

The majority of the fishing boats which make their headquarters at Victoria, are already away in readiness for the opening of the season, although a few craft are still tied up at the fishermen's wharf in the upper harbor.

Some 50 boats will be out from Victoria, while more than 70 will go to sea from Vancouver and more from Prince Rupert and other points.

The sockeye season is expected to yield a large catch, state fishermen, after last season's low mark. With the halibut season half over the fishermen will concentrate on the sockeye run. The blueback season is well under way
following the commencement of operations last week-end.

Rain of Fish
There are numerous authentic records of rains of fish. Swept into the air by hurricane gales, small fish may be carried considerable distances and dropped with rain.

Korda May Produce
Films in Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Alexander
Korda, British motion picture producer, plans "to take some films
in Canada," R. C. Sherriff, British author and playwright,
said here in an interview.

Korda, Sherriff said, "some months ago had discussions with the late Lord Tweedsmuir about making pictures in Canada... and I believe that it is partly as a result of those conversations that he is coming to Canada now."

"It is almost impossible to play "Journey's End."

POPULAR COUPLE IN DOMINION PICTURE

"Brother Rat and a Baby," Warner Bros. new sequel to the comedy hit "Brother Rat," will have its first local showing at the Dominion Theatre today. Heading the cast are Priscilla Lane, Wayne Morris, Eddie Albert, Jane Wyman, Ronald Reagan and Peter B.
Good, the infant actor who plays
the second half of the title.

Based on a story by John Monks Jr. and Fred F. Finklehoff, who originated the "Brother Rat" comedy for the stage and later for the screen, the new film continues the adventures of a trio of V.M.I. cadets after graduation. Eddie Albert, the Brother Rat who became a father on Commencement Day, is the proud screen papa of little Peter B.
Good and Jane Bryan is the mother. Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane pick up the tangled threads of their romance where they left off in "Brother Rat" and Ronald Reagan and Jane Bryan are another twosome, bucking parental disapproval.

Naval Drama On Capitol Screen

"The navy is here!"—these dramatic words form the theme of the great naval picture, "For Freedom," which will open at the Capitol on Saturday. Will Fyffe, the eminent character actor, heads
the cast and critics agree that in
"For Freedom" provided his greatest role. Additional actual persons appearing in the picture include the officers and men of H.M.S. Ajax and Exeter.
The entire picture forms a glowing tribute to Britain's fighting navy and depicts many of the incidents of the present war in which the navy took part, notably the destruction of the Graf Spee
and the dramatic rescue of the British seamen from the Nazi ship
Altmark by H.M.S. Cossack.

PLAZA THEATRE

"The Warning," now at the Plaza Theatre, is a documentary, which is one of the most deeply impressive pictures ever shown.
It shows England preparing for war and follows that with a detailed air attack showing devastation and the defence.

There is no acting. It is all business. You do not feel that the picture is being shown for your entertainment. You are sitting in on something that is between the British government and its people. The overwhelming reality of the film chills while it thrills. That picture brings you as close as possible to the beginning of the next war.

ATLAS THEATRE

Fireman Jack Kent was acclaimed as the luckiest fireman in Hollywood. He won the assignment of teaching Eleanor Powell the technique of sliding down a 60-foot pole. Miss Powell's entrance into her new film,
"Broadway Melody of 1940," now at the Atlas Theatre, is unusual to say the least. She comes bounding into the camera lens
with a slide down the mast of a ship. It looked like fun to Miss Powell. She wanted to do it. So Jack Kent, an expert, was hired to teach the star just how it was done. A 60-foot pole was erected on the back lot for rehearsal purposes and during practice the star was protected by a life net.

Pigeons Play Part in Present War

From time to time homing pigeons have been employed in war. Most often this has been done when a city was in danger of capture, and had no other messenger service with the outside world.

When the Christians were fighting the Turks in the Crusades, a pigeon played a strange part. The Christians were laying siege to Ptolemais in Syria and the people in the city were holding out in the hope that the sultan would come with help.

One day a homing pigeon flew low over the French and Venetians who had surrounded Ptolemais. The record does not give a clear idea of how it was brought down, but it fell into the hands of the Christians. Under its wing was a letter from the sultan to the people in the city. The sultan said that in three days he would come with an army.

A new letter was placed under the pigeon's wing, a forged letter which said: "You must look after your own safety. The sultan cannot send an army to help you."

The pigeon was sent on its way. This made the defenders of Ptolemais give up the struggle. Two days after they surrendered the sultan's army came, but it was too late.

A better-known case of pigeons being used in warfare is found in records of the siege of Paris during the Franco-Prussian war. I shall tell about that event in our next story.

Homing pigeons played a part in the World War. When telegraph and telephone wires were cut between the front lines and the rear, messages were placed on the legs of pigeons, or under their wings, and many of them reached headquarters safely.

Early in the present warfare, Great Britain's king turned over the pigeons in the "royal loft" to the fighting forces.

Aviators of the Royal Air Force at times carry pigeons with them. When a seaplane is forced down and cannot send out a radio message, pigeons may take the call for help to those who will come to the rescue.

The Pope is to exercise his influence in a way that will be of great moment in the European war, but the effect of his courageous effort toward peace will be slow in demonstrating its wide, full meaning. Italy is to manifest sudden changes of policy on the part of Mussolini who hopes to be on the side of success. Turkey comes under a configuration of great promise to the future of the nation.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

WOOD TICKS CAN LIVE FOUR YEARS WITHOUT FOOD.

WHAT EX-PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. DIED ON THE SAME DAY AS THE VICE-PRESIDENT WHO SERVED WITH HIM?

ANSWER: John Adams. Both he and Thomas Jefferson, who served as vice-president during Adams' term, died on July 4, 1826.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am in the unusual position of having a husband who notices what I have on; who observes when I have polished the silver; who actually tells me to go out and buy clothes; who never fails to appreciate and admire what I do and be sympathetic over my failures, and who constantly reiterates his conviction that he is the luckiest guy in the world and nobody could be as wonderful or so much fun to live with as I am. Do you think that I am married to the only perfect man?

ANSWER—Certainly sounds that way. Anyway, you must be the favorite daughter of Lady Luck.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a happy bride of two months. I had a good position before marriage and have continued to work since. My husband has to be at work at 7 o'clock, while I don't have to be on my job until 9. We live with my mother and she thinks I should get up and get my husband his breakfast, but he thinks it is all right for me not to do so. What do you think?

ANSWER—I think that any woman who has a husband with enough pep in him to get up and go to work at 7 o'clock should get up and get him a good hot breakfast and show him a shining face across the table. That is starting the day off right, and makes a man feel that he has something worth while to work for.

Last impressions are very important things, and I often wonder at the stupidity of wives who let their husbands go from them in the morning with a picture in their minds that they carry with them all day, of a frowzy woman in a soiled wrapper or of a cross, peevish fretful face, or the rankling memory of a quarrel over the bacon and eggs, or an early grouch of having to get up and cook themselves some sort of dyspepsia-breeding mess in a hurry that they call breakfast.

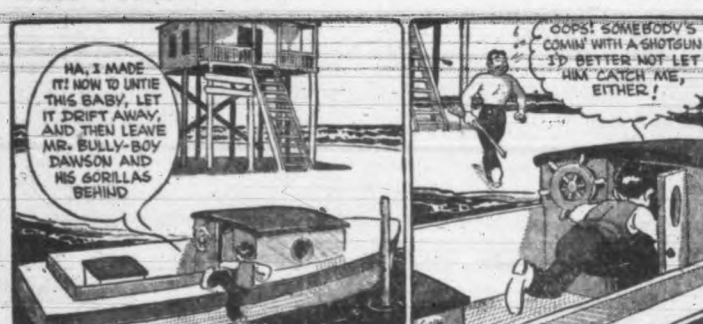

If you want to keep your man, get up and cook him a good breakfast. Never bring up an unpleasant subject at the breakfast table, and send him away with a memory of a cheerful wife in a pink dress or bungalow apron that is spick with the aroma of a cup of perfect coffee ascending like incense about the altar of home.

HOSPITAL CASES
The Canadian Pensioners' Association of the last Great War shortly to be known as the Canadian War Pensioners' Association, will hold their annual day on Saturday. This association was formed under charter from the federal authorities at Ottawa in 1923 in order to look after the disabled comrades of the last war, their dependents, their children and dependents' parents and to take up with the federal government all legitimate claims involving that service.

Since formation locally, over 660 cases have been brought to a successful conclusion to the applicants concerned. The association has no revenue of any sort, excepting the donation this tag day produces. All work is voluntary and is done for all ex-servicemen and women of both the British and Canadian forces, whether members or not. It is the intention of this association to look after Victoria men and Vancouver Island enlisted men when casualties in Duches of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hospital, Cliveden, Taplow, England, and to render any other help the association may be asked for.

Board Against Gas Price Cut

EDMONTON (CP)—Existing prices for petroleum products in Alberta should not be reduced and the provincial government should not enter the oil business, an Alberta government summary of the McGillivray Royal Commission report said today.

The commission, with Mr. Justice A. A. McGillivray of the Alberta Appeal Court as chairman and Major L. R. Lipsett of Ardley, Alta., as the other member, was appointed in October, 1938, by the provincial government to investigate all phases of the oil industry in the province. Over a 15-month period ending December 30, 1939, the commission heard 4,500,000 words of evidence and submitted a report of 160,000 words to the government May 31. The government today issued the 6,000 word summary along with the report.

The summary said the commission found the real hope for wider markets for Alberta's oil products lies in reduced transportation costs, stated it had no views on price-fixing because the members had no knowledge of the subject, and reported that if crude oil production continues at the 1939 rate, all known reserves in the province will be used up in about 14 years.

Regarding legislative price-fixing, the commissioners expressed no views as to the advantages or disadvantages which have followed on price-fixing legislation elsewhere, notably in Nova Scotia and British Columbia.

The report urged the government to earmark gasoline tax revenues and use them for the sole purpose of constructing and maintaining government highways. It was found the retail spread of 4 1/2 cents in Edmonton and Calgary is reasonable, but the larger and varying spreads in many outlying centres are unreasonable.

West's, Uniteds Clash Again

The Beacon Hill Park soccer pitch bordering on Douglas Street will again be the scene of soccer action tomorrow afternoon when the city's two top teams, Victoria West and Victoria United, collide in a replay of their local final in the Dominion Cup campaign.

These two outfits fought to a 2 to 2 draw last Saturday after two hours of battling, and supporters are looking for another keen tiff before the winner emerges from tomorrow's encounter.

Both teams will be at their best strength for the engagement. West's line-up follows: T. Restell, Murray, Leggett, Loran, R. Restell, Cooper, R. Okell, Williams, Robinson, J. Okell, Dalimore, Munroe, Kitching, Duncan, Gent, Gornall, Holness, Paterson, Kennedy and Embrey.

Victoria United line-up follows: Moss, Wilkinson, Bell, Reside, Sage, G. Robbins, Barnes, Hope, Travis, C. Robbins, Morgan, Cosier, W. Robbins.

Last night, in the K. of C. Hall on Government Street, approximately 150 soccer players, officials and their girl friends and wives gathered for a banquet and dance to wind-up the 1939-40 season of the Victoria and District Football League.

Magistrate Henry C. Hall, president of the league, presided over the affair, and in a short talk following the sit-down supper, spoke of the way soccer had "carried on" despite many difficulties put in its way by the war. "The standard of play improved as well, in this sense—the Victoria West team only last Saturday was able to hold the city's representative unit to a draw, a commendable feat for an individual unit," the magistrate said.

Tourney Opens at Armadale Courts

Tomorrow the Armadale Tennis Club will hold its annual open and handicap tournaments. A good entry has been filed, and officials look for a successful and interesting meet. The draw for tomorrow afternoon follows:

Salmonbellies Whip Burrards

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP)—New Westminster Salmonbellies upset the apple cart of the Victoria Burrards in the highly-rated Burrards under a 20 to 14 score.

Burrards, pre-game favorites, had little chance to score after the first half as the Fishmen capitalized on their close checking and neat passing.

The victory had no effect on league standing. Salmonbellies held a slight edge in the first quarter and finished with a 2 to 1 lead but Vancouver turned on the pressure and left the Burrards at half-time with an 8 to 5 lead. Salmonbellies took over a 14 to 11 lead in the third quarter.

Ralph Burton led Salmonbellies with six goals while Bert Bryant also netted one and assisted in five others. Bill Morpitt topped Burrard snipers with five goals and one assist.

AIR CLEARED IN BOXLA AND REFEREES GET TEAM BACKING

the referees and supervisors in a mainly sort of way these situations clear themselves up," said Sargison.

W. C. Moresby, chairman of the association; Johnny Johnson, Art Chapman and Vic Simpson voiced the opinion that the refs weren't doing such a bad job.

USED FOR ALIBIS

Chapman maintained the referees in practically every sport were first used for alibis.

Moresby spoke of the way today's senior arbiters had stuck with the game since its birth here and the help they had given to build it up. Their actions on the floor were impartial and good. "They make mistakes, all referees do, but they handle the games fairly, I say without hesitation," the chairman said. "When you play lacrosse, you're not playing ping-pong and have got to stand knocks and blows, which the ordinary boy can't stand. On the outside, those who urge dirty work are not going to help the game, and you've got to look out for that. The boys here are playing the game for the love of it. They get a few knocks, but soon make up again, with but few exceptions," Moresby declared.

Johnny Johnson appealed for a little tolerance in regard to referees. "You've got to remember boxla referees have got to make instant decisions and haven't got the time we have to think them out. Remember 20 men would never see the play in the same light. The referees call them as they see them, not as the crowd sees them, which would probably be in 50 different ways," Johnson said. He said boxla referees took lots of abuse got little for it.
